Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Today we celebrate what has been accomplished and begin our preparations for the next adventure. On June 24th, 36 youth and adults headed toward Detroit, Michigan. As one of my favorite mission songs puts it, "Leaving the safe and familiar..." Mission trips take us out of our comfort zones and put us to work according to God's plan and not our own. That was definitely the case this year.

As we completed what was my 30th mission trip, there was a wonderful feeling that fears had been thwarted, and a strong community had been built. The youth themselves voted to only use cell phones for one hour during the day, which gave all of us the evening to play games, do puzzles, talk with each other, and learn to appreciate one another as friends.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all who sponsored the trip through your financial help and your prayers. I want to give a huge shout out to the adults who braved a week of heat and humidity without air conditioning, their own beds, dining in peace, and sometimes a week's pay to make this trip possible for the youth. I am also so amazed by the spirit, endurance, and courage of the young people who give up their sports, time at the pool, a week's pay from a summer job, and being with friends and family to help others in need.

Each day they gave everything they had toward the job that needed to be done. There was very little complaining, even though it was very warm. There were very few problems, even though we were all living in close quarters, sharing bathrooms and showers in an old, old, church.

Thanks go out to our cooking staff, Louise, Irlene, and Jim and also to Char who had to step down at the last minute, but did much of the planning and shopping. We ate well!! Every year I think I am getting too old for these trips and yet...they feed my soul!!

Blessings, PJ

*Call to Worship

Leader: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete.

People: Paul wrote it, Jesus lived it, and we are called to work toward it!
Make our joy complete.

Leader: Be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

People: Paul wrote it, Jesus lived it, and we are called to work toward it.
Make our joy complete!

Leader: Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves.

People: Paul wrote it, Jesus lived it, and we are called to work toward it.
Make our joy complete!

Leader: Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.

People: Paul wrote it, Jesus lived it, and we are called to work toward it.
Make our joy complete! Amen.

Prayer Requests and Celebrations, Call to Prayer, Morning Prayer

The Lord's Prayer "Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen."

Witness to Mission

Unison Prayer: Beloved God, you have a mighty plan for each of us. You called some of us to mission in Detroit this summer and some of us to mission in our own neighborhoods. You have called many family and friends who supported the mission financially and with prayer and for all of those, we thank you. You called six churches to be in unity with one another. Sometimes the task seemed daunting, but you did not let us turn away. Month by month in our planning, the obstacles became opportunities, the troubles became triumphs, and the friends became family. We thank you for the many blessings we have had in the planning, the preparation, and the participation from those who went on the mission and those who shared their support. In Jesus name, Amen!
