"An Old Story for a New Day: Creation"

Pastor Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Surprise! The bulletin may look a bit different to you if this is not your first Sunday with us. That is on purpose. We are striving to cut a little cost by having 4 pages instead of 8. We are also using another program to produce the bulletin as the program Susan (our retired, Administrative Assistant) used was older and more complicated. We will continue to bring PUMC news updates, events schedules, prayer requests, and other pertinent information to you, just in a little more compact way. Please bear with us as we are continually "moving on to perfection."

The Finance Committee and the staff are welcoming the new format as the cost of printing the bulletin will be cut in half and the program now used will cut the staff time for preparation significantly. Today we will be hearing about our East Ohio Annual Conference from Linda Jenkins, Jane Morse, and Nick Connavino who attended the conference representing the church, the Western Reserve District, and the North Coast District. We will also begin our summer series of preaching, "Old Stories for a New Day." A fresh look at the ancient stories of Genesis and what can be gleaned from them for our congregation and our community. We hope you will enjoy the series as you remember the stories you learned in your Vacation Bible School days.

Blessings, PJ
