Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

In case you didn't notice already, I am not here! I am at Lakeside with 9 other people from PUMC at Youth Annual Conference. Our young people are participating in one of the most wonderful events East Ohio offers: a chance to learn about the policies and procedures of an Annual Conference while being with their peers from all over our East Ohio Conference.

PUMC is being represented by 5 young men and their adult leaders. I am honored to be a part of this delegation, sharing time with our youth, and watching them navigate the waters of United Methodism in 2018. They, along with their adult counterparts in the week ahead, will be dealing with the serious questions about how the church is to be "the church." I know we will be having some important discussions throughout the weekend, and I know I will learn as much from them as they might from me.

I would ask for all of your prayers, not only for Youth Annual Conference, but for the week to come. The adult conference will be dealing with discussions about the church's stand on "loving your neighbor" (no matter who they are,) "dealing with people who are different than ourselves" (and that is pretty much everyone,) "who we might choose to exclude from full rights as a United Methodist" (which would personally make me very sad.)

We need your prayers.

I am very grateful to our Co-Lay Leader Kumba Alafi who accepted my invitation to preach and to Nick who continues to be such a valuable asset to the church as he and Kumba lead you all today in worship.

Blessings, PJ

Seekers of Light...is a small group meeting each Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. at PUMC, a home, or, sometimes, in a park by the water.

From the Book of Acts, small groups are how church meetings began; Community was established.

Though we don't all think the same, in "Community", is the word, "UNITY". Christian Unity is not us... it is our belief in Jesus Christ; the Light we seek!

Our time together gives opportunities for people to join in a time of sharing; sharing our lives, our concerns, and how to apply God's Word to our lives.

Instead of being inwardly focused, we need to focus on the horizon. Where are we going to live for eternity? We need to learn how to pray and focus on Jesus Christ to live peacefully.

We invite you to join in community with us on Tuesday mornings.

Community is Love; it is caring; it is unity in and with Christ.

Come join us on June 12th as we begin to study the Book of Revelation.

The Tues. Night Bible Study is on a break. It will resume on July 10, 2018.

Wed. July 4, 2018, is The Tues. Night Bible Study Potluck /Picnic, 6:30-8:30 pm at the Stickland residence.

Group members & persons interested in joining the group, RSVP to Maria Strickland (windydaffodils@hotmail.com or 440-289-4292)

Bring a dish to share. No fireworks please!

Beginning July 10, the group will be studying the small books in the New Testament, from 1st Corinthians through the Book of Jude, a few chapters at a time. Childcare is available during Bible Study (6:30 - 8 pm)
