PJ's Post

Pastor Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Today we celebrate Father's Day. So often I am rushing away on the work mission trip or are at Annual Conference for Father's Day that I haven't been able to celebrate as often as I would like. So I am extra glad we are not leaving until after the 10:00 service to travel to Wilmington, Delaware for the mission trip.

Though my father died when I was nine and was sick from the time I was three, I am so thankful for the life he gave me and the influence he had on our family during his short lifetime. Likewise, I am incredibly grateful for Jim and the father he is to our children, our son and daughter in laws and the grandfather he has become in the past few years. I knew I married a wonderful man, but I didn't realize what an incredible father he would be. And this year has been extra special to watch our son fulfill that role for little Quinn. To quote my daughter-in-law, "I didn't think I could love Adam more than I already did, until I watched him being a 'Daddy' to Quinn!"

I have also been blessed with so many male figures in my life who have stepped in the father role when I needed them. My brother walked me down the "aisle" at our wedding. A coach stood up with Jim representing my father there as well. Good friends have offered me sage advice when I needed a man's perspective and they have also been there wipe away tears, give encouragement, and sometimes a good swift kick!

In the movie "The Shack" God is portrayed as a black woman throughout most of the movie, but in one scene a native American man is the image of God. Why? Because, as this image of God told the man who was about to do something incredibly difficult, "I thought you could use a father this time!" I thank God for my father, husband and son and for the men who were sent by God to be a father to me.

Blessings,
PJ

PS: I am so grateful for the men who are going on the mission trip, giving up their "Father's Day" to be a father figure and leader for our young people! Thanks be to God!!

Christian Education

Happy Father's Day to all my gentlemen out there! What a difference a father figure can make in someone's life! We are so blessed here at PUMC with some great fathers, grandfathers, brothers and uncles! Please don't forget to thank all the men in your life for all that they do :)

Vacation Bible School

Don't forget to sign up for VBS online or one of the neon green sheets- it's June 26th to the 30th. We are in need of several items for VBS such as: bananas, ice cream, popcorn, rice pudding, fruit juice, french fries, napkins, zip lock bags, bottled water. Please look at the sign up sheet in the Circle Room and see what you can bring! VBS is a free event so we rely on the generosity of our congregation to give the kids a fantastic week. Thank you all so much!

Have a great week,
Ms. Johanna
