Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

I have been mind-boggled all week that another work mission is ready to go. 40 youth and adults will be leaving today to go to inner-city Detroit to work for a couple of different agencies doing good work in whatever area is needed. This year's planning has taken some dips and curves along the way, but I am convinced that God has a special plan for us in a city that needs so much.

I would ask that you keep us all in prayer as we travel today and work all week. This week's trip exemplifies the most important work in mission work: FLEXIBILITY! As we made plans for four months to go to New York, we have spent the last month and a half adjusting our sails and preparing for Detroit. When the structure and communication from New York was not helpful, we prayed and spoke to other places and the Motown Mission was excited to have us come! They have been very helpful in helping us prepare for our week.

Where God calls us, there we will go! Where God needs us, there we will work! Thank you to all who bought stock and have supported the mission team this year. On July 29th we will be having our Work Mission Sunday where you will see and hear about the trip and will be invited to join us for a light lunch to celebrate the conclusion of this trip and the vision of our next. Cost for stock-holders $0, cost for others $5 which will go toward next year's trip.

Remember, God calls all of us to mission in one way or another. Find what kind of service feeds your soul, then do that for others as often as you can.

That is your mission!

Blessings, PJ

Leader: Love is a circular thing.

People: God loves us, we love God, we love others, they love us, God loves them, they love God.

Leader: Joy comes through all stages of that love.

People: Joy comes from loving, joy comes from serving and to serve with love brings the greatest joy.

Leader: We are all called to mission of some kind, God's joy is complete when all are serving the needs of others, using the gifts God has given us to do so.

People: Let us strive to make God's joy complete, let us serve others with love this week and forever!
