Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

It's March! I love the unpredictability of March. The only time in 29 years of pastoring that I ever had to close a church due to snow was in March. And yet one of the most beautiful Easters ever was also in March. It is truly a month of certain uncertainty! But as we continue to say the words of our Call to Worship each week, I pray your faith is becoming a more certain thing every day.

Today's passage is one of those short and yet very poignant pieces that Jesus wanted everyone to know. Some think it is about money and earthly riches, and I guess that is true to an extent, but to me it is more about justice, equality and the gift that is truly available to everyone. You see, in our world, there will always be the "haves" and the "have nots." There will always be the healthy and the ill. There will always be the talented and the not-so-talented. And there will always be others who will shine the light on the differences, exalting those with the most of something and neglecting those with less. But the blessing of the realm of God is that it is available to all people, no matter what their "status" on earth.

What you have on earth will remain on earth, but what you do to help establish God's realm through the giving of yourself and your gifts that help others know God's power, feel secure in God's love, and understand the beauty of all of God's people is something that will last through eternity. Not everyone can leave a legacy of wealth and status when they transition from this world, but EVERYONE can leave a legacy of love. And that is what God's kingdom is all about!

Blessings, PJ

PS: This March also brings: Palm Sunday (March 25), Maundy Thursday (March 29), and Good Friday (March 30). Easter Sunday will be the wonderful celebration of the greatest April Fool's joke ever! Be prepared to be a part of the Triumph, the Passion, and the Glory participating in all of the Holy Week Services.

Children's Time

*Call to Worship:

Leader: I'm a part of the fellowship of the unashamed. The die has been cast. I have stepped over the line. The decision has been made.

I'm a disciple of His and I won't look back, let up, slow down, back away, or be still.

My past is redeemed. My present makes sense. My future is secure.

I'm done and finished with low living, sight walking, small planning, smooth knees, colorless dreams, tamed visions, mundane talking, cheap living, and dwarfed goals.

I no longer need preeminence, prosperity, position, promotions, plaudits, or popularity.

I don't have to be right, or first, or tops, or recognized, or praised, or rewarded.

People: I live by faith, lean on His presence, walk by patience, lift by prayer, and labor by Holy Spirit power. My face is set. My gait is fast. My goal is heaven.

My road may be narrow, my way rough, my companions few, but my guide is reliable and my mission is clear.

I will not be bought, compromised, detoured, lured away, turned back, deluded or delayed.

I will not flinch in the face of sacrifice or hesitate in the presence of the adversary.

I will not negotiate at the table of the enemy, ponder at the pool of popularity, or meander in the maze of mediocrity.

I won't give up, shut up, or let up until I have stayed up, stored up, prayed up, paid up, and preached up for the cause of Christ.

I am a disciple of Jesus. I must give until I drop, preach until all know, and work until He comes. And when He does come for His own, He'll have no problems recognizing me. My colors will be clear!

Prayer Requests and Celebrations; Call to Prayer/Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer "Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen."

Holy Communion & Offertory

I Call To Thee, Lord Jesus Christ

JS. Bach

Please come forward and place your offering in the plates at the ends of the first pew and come and partake in Holy Communion. The table of the Lord in the United Methodist Church is open to ALL people. John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Movement, felt it was a means of grace, a place to find the love of God. The cup is filled with grape juice as we are conscious of our brothers and sisters who may have a problem with addiction and we also want the children to feel welcome and participate. Again, the table is open to ALL.

*Doxology

"Praise God from who all blessings flow. Praise him all creatures here below.
Praise him above ye heavenly host. Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen."

*Closing Hymn:
