PJ's Post

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met, Today is the first Sunday in Lent. Notice I said "in" and not "of." That is on purpose! Lent is the season leading up to Easter which represents the 40 days Jesus spent in the wilderness. It is an opportunity for each of us to search our souls for the "wilderness" places of our lives and strive to overcome them through prayers and self-reflection. But the Sundays are not a part of Lent. Sundays are always to be "Easter Mini-Mes." Each Sunday is a reminder of the Risen Christ and the blessings of salvation given to us by Jesus. Therefore the early church leaders counted back from Easter 40 days, not including the Sundays.

For those who missed the Ash Wednesday Service, that was the official beginning of the Lenten Season. The calendars that many picked up last week and which are still available on the welcome tables will guide you through scripture and devotion times for the season. The Book Study which begins today and will be on the first five Sundays in Lent is still open to anyone who would like to join us. We will order more books for you, so feel free to come beginning at 11:15 today in the chapel off of the atrium toward the Education Building. (Lunch is included.)

It is my prayer that you will begin planning now to attend the special services of Holy Week. Maundy Thursday will be a communion service celebrating the Last Supper when Jesus instituted the Eucharist or Holy Communion. Following a short service in the sanctuary, the congregation will be led to the Circle Room area to be given communion in tables of 12 symbolizing the disciples who were with Jesus on their last night together.

The Good Friday service will be the second edition of the Live Tenebrae being done by our youth and young people. This service lifts up the birth, life and teachings of Jesus while the youth bring the light of Christ to life and conclude that section standing in the dark, in a cross formation with candles lighting only their faces. Then the events of Holy Week (The Passion Story) are read and the candles are extinguished one by one until the reader tells of Jesus' death on the cross, at which time the sanctuary is left in total darkness. It is a powerful service and in just one year became a meaningful experience for the youth.

Easter Sunrise will again be held in the Gazebo in Veteran's Park. This year it will be at 6:15 and will conclude with the sun's rising at 6:45. On Easter morning we will have both the 8:30 and 10:00 services celebrating the great joy of the Risen Lord!

Youth Group ~ Grades 6-12

DYC Retreat begins Friday, March 10 at 6pm & ends Sunday, March 12 around 1PM. If you are attending and haven't already paid the $35.00, please get that to Margie. (Checks payable to PUMC.) Thank you.

We will be staying in the cabins at Camp Asbury. Bring your sleeping bags, pillows & other personal & hygiene items needed.

Pack your bible, paper and writing instrument. Bring your refillable water bottle. You may bring a frisbee or ball, board games or cards for down time. Make sure your name is on all these items, it is your responsibility to keep track of them.

Please pack appropriately for any kind of weather. Bring your boots for outside muddy times, with a bag to put them in. This will limit the amount of mud we have to clean-up later. Also, bring shoes to change into when inside.

Please bring snacks to share with everyone. Fruits & veggies are a great idea, too. Main meals will be provided on Saturday, along with breakfast & lunch on Sunday.

If you have any questions, please contact a DYC member (Sara, Jayden, Ryan, Josh or Sam) or ask Margie.

Christian Education

Good Morning all!

Almost every Sunday Nora turns around in the pew and points out the Rose Window. She never gets tired of seeing it and always asks me questions about it, including if I can get one for our house! Her questioning has made me stand back and look again at something I've seen for the past 30 years and have come to let it blend into the scenery so to say. Has anyone else wondered about it? Here's a brief history of our beautiful Rose Window.

The Rose Window, located at the front of the church, consists of 1,371 carefully selected and cut pieces of stained glass and measures 24 feet wide and 20 feet high, one of the largest in the country. Its cost of $300 was donated by the Young People's Society. In the center is a 7-pointed star known as the Mystic Star and representing the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Additional symbolism is evident in the ten tall stained glass windows on each side of the Sanctuary, designed and created by Douglas Phillips.

One of the windows shows a chalice, or cup which is a beautiful reminder of the cup which our Lord took and blessed and gave to his disciples at the Last Supper. "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes." Pictured with the chalice there are grapes and leaves on a vine representing not only the source of the communion wine but also Christ and his disciples. In the parable of the vine, Jesus said, "I am the vine, you are the branches."

The description of the above window and the other nine windows is found in the 1984 history of our church.

We can all become so accustomed to seeing something or having someone around that we don't take the time to appreciate the beauty! This week I challenge everyone to look at their surroundings and find the beauty. We will not be in church as we are taking a family trip to Disney World. I'll have to remember myself to look at the beauty and have a little extra patience!

Have a beautiful week,
Ms. Johanna

Litany of the Season

Leader: Come in from the wilderness. The spirit has led you day by day, until on our way we hungered for bread.

People: But we would not betray our God to own all the world's food.

PAINESVILLE
CHURCH

Feb. 19, 2017

Our vision is to be a thriving community of believers following Christ, whose faith joyfully expresses God's love to the community, each other and the world through outreach, service and giving!

Our mission is to creatively and actively educate, worship, pray, serve and give in the name of Jesus Christ!

Leader: Come in from the wilderness; join in a meal at the Lord's table. Come in from the wilderness. The spirit has carried us above the steeples, until our spirits swelled with pride at our faith.

People: But we would not betray our God to fill all the world's temples.

Leader: Come in from the wilderness; rest by the fire and warm your hearts. Come in from the wilderness; the spirit took us to a high mountain until our chests puffed up at the sight of all earth's nations.

People: But we would not betray our God to control the world's peoples.

Leader: Come in from the wilderness; let the angels appear and minister to you.

People: We will worship the Lord our God, and God alone will we serve! (Tilson and Cole, 1992)

Holy Communion and Offertory "Just a Closer Walk With Thee" arr. R. Brown

The Table of the Lord is open to all people in the United Methodist Church regardless of age, church affiliation or place on your faith journey. Communion is a means of grace where all may come and seek fullness, forgiveness and God's love. The cup is filled with grape juice as United Methodists have a strong appreciation for social action and do not want to deter our friends who may have a problem with addiction from coming to the table. All are welcome here!

(PLEASE PLACE YOUR OFFERING IN THE BASKETS AT THE END OF THE FIRST PEW BEFORE COMING TO PARTAKE OF THE BREAD AND CUP)

Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him all creatures here below. Praise Him above, ye heavenly host. Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.
