Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Happy Mother's Day to ALL women! As many of you know, I like to support all women on Mother's Day and all men on Father's Day. Biological mothers and fathers are wonderful, but so too are the many women in our lives that have been such amazing influences for us, I celebrate them all!

One I am thinking of this weekend is my college coach Lana. She is suffering with a form of cancer and the prognosis does not look good. I cannot express enough the positive influence she has been in my life and how much I appreciate her mother-like qualities she shared with me, her strength, and her courage. She is a special "Mom" figure in my life. I am sure everyone can think of one or two or many who have been that person for you. I celebrate Lana today!!

Thank you to all of the women in this congregation who have played such an important role in the lives of our children and all of us. Many of you volunteer to work here at the church in a variety of capacities, while a large amount of you, support the various ministries from behind the scenes, financially, prayerfully, and with encouragement. All of you are important and without you this church would not be the same.

May we always remember the blessings other women have been in our lives and be the kind of people who are a positive influence on our church's youth and children, as well as youth and children around the world whom we can touch through our mission and ministry.

Happy Mother's Day to ALL!

Blessings, PJ
