"Remember"

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,
Memorial Day Sunday 2020 is earlier than usual. In fact it is the earliest date it could ever be! Memorial Day is always the last Monday in May and because next Monday is the first day of June, tomorrow is Memorial Day and thus today is Memorial Day Sunday!

When I was young, Memorial Day was a holiday and meant the opening of the city pool. The water was freezing, but we all went. No one wanted to miss the first day! It was a rite of passage for the summer! Who would be the first to jump in; who could be the first off the high dive; and, as a point of honor, who would be the last to get out! Our lips would be blue, we would be shaking all over, but by golly we would stay in that pool until our friends gave in and got out.

When I grew older and realized that Memorial Day had nothing to do with the city pool, but was all about honoring those who had lost their lives protecting our country and our way of life, it became less of a holiday and more of a Holy Day!

I say Holy Day, because it is. This year we are well aware of those who are losing their lives protecting or saving the lives of others: doctors, nurses, paramedics and others because the battle we are fighting this year is much closer to home. But the battles fought for far too many years all over the world where soldiers have lost their lives protecting or saving the lives of others must not be overlooked. They are all heroes and all are to be honored.

Today we raise the flag, we remember the sacrifices so many have made. Today we lift up thanks, for all those who put their lives on the line so that the rest of us might live. Today and everyday, I thank God for those men and women.

Blessings, PJ

Memorial Day!

Memorial Day is a day we honor those who died in wars. They gave their lives so that we might live in peace in this country. It used to be called Decoration Day, as it began when families would go to the cemetery and decorate the soldiers graves with flowers and flags.

You could ask your parents to drive you out to a cemetery tomorrow and you will see the flags and flowers placed on the graves of loved ones.

You could also talk to your parents about your grandparents or great-grandparents to see if any of them were soldiers who went to war.

Mostly, remember to thank God for peace!

Coronavirus Updates for Church Opening

The Task Force* had its first meeting on Tuesday, May 19 to begin discussion about re-opening.

*Dr. Jay Taylor, MD; Missy Kealoha, R.N.; Emma Aurand, New Member/Respiratory Therapist (Pros)

Michael Huston, Admin. Council Chair, Nick Connavino and Pastor Jan (Logistics)

The Task force has determined that being a compassionate and care giving community, our first concern must be for the safety and well-being of all in our congregation and visitors.

Therefore some decisions were made (each week there will be updates):

PUMC will remain closed to in-person worship until it is safe to be together. Please be patient!

PUMC must see a 14 day decline in the new cases of COVID 19 in the state of Ohio before beginning procedures to allow the church to re-open. We have live stream and radio. Be thankful.
