Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

In an old, old scrapbook my Aunt Janet made during the troubling times of WWII there was a selection entitled "Discipleship." As I read it, I imagined all those families throughout the world who lost sons and daughters, fathers, and mothers, and others dear to them in those horrible times when war dominated the papers and lives were lost due to the senselessness of a few. As areas of the world are still in battle zones and futures around the world are uncertain, I felt this would be appropriate to share on this Memorial Day Sunday.

Discipleship (Author Unknown)

As thou goest, step by step, I will open up the way before thee." Proverbs 4:12

Child of My love, fear not the unknown morrow, dread not the new demand life makes of thee;

Thy ignorance doth hold no cause for sorrow since what thou knowest not is known to Me.

Thou canst not see today the hidden meaning of My command, but thou the light shalt gain;

Walk on in faith, upon My promise leaning, and as thou goest all shall be made plain.

One step thou seest – then go forward boldly, one step is far enough for faith to see;

Take that, and thy next duty shall be told thee, for step by step thy Lord is leading thee.

Stand not in fear thy adversaries counting, dare every peril, save to disobey;

Thou shalt march on, all obstacles surmounting, for I the Lord, will open up the way.

Wherefore go gladly to the task assigned thee, having My promise, needing nothing more

That just to know, where'er the future find thee, in all thy journeying I go before.

"In God We Trust" must not only be written on our coins, it must be written on our hearts. May all people between this Memorial Day and the next find a way to make a world of peace and may we be leading that cause. Blessings, P.J.

*Call to Worship: Written by James Hilton during WW II

Leader: Let us pray to God, the Unconquerable Spirit.

All: "Help us to rebuild the world for more splendid lives than ours, add wisdom to the ardor of the young, and loving-kindness to the musings of the old; make our eyes aware of things that are too gentle to proclaim themselves, give us emotion far beyond the fret of nerves, free us from fear of our own brothers (and sisters,) and from the triple curse of greed, intolerance, and vain glory. Lift the dark cloud of war from our future, and grant comfort to all quiet kindly folk who carry peace in their hearts amidst the stress of conflict: strengthen them also to endure what may befall. Bring down the tyrants, befriend the victims of injustice and equate the rewards of labor nearer to the needs of (all.) Accustom us to work not for the snatched profit, but for the common good and for the planned destiny of (humankind). Give patience to those who wait restlessly for this, and hope to those who have ceased to believe that it will come; and fill our hearts with faith in a Kingdom of heaven which our children's children may someday find on earth. Amen."

Leader: May our spirits be as unconquerable as yours, dear God.

All: Amen.

*Opening Hymn: The Battle Hymn of the Republic

UMH #717

*Passing of the Peace of Christ/Prayer Requests/Pastoral Prayer/The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen"
