"Community—Together Strong"

A Future with Hope

A Message from Bishop Tracy S. Malone, East Ohio Conference

Greetings clergy and laity of the East Ohio Conference. I greet you with the love and the peace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to God always for each of you, for how you are living into our shared vision of being disciples of Jesus Christ, of making and maturing disciples of Jesus Christ. I give thanks to God for how you are being agents of healing, and hope, and transformation in your communities; for how you are loving, and leading, and serving your neighbors ...

Beloved, I want you to know that there is a place for you in this our beloved United Methodist Church. No matter where you are in the Conference ... urban, suburban, small town, country or rural ... there is a place for you in this United Methodist Church!

The United Methodist Church has always been a big tent church ... a holy communion of different races, and ethnicities, cultures, and perspectives united by the Holy Spirit, rooted in scripture, driven by the mission of Christ, and bearing the good news of an unmerited grace that changes lives and transforms communities ... Whether you consider yourself liberal, evangelical, progressive, traditionalist, middle of the road, conservative, centrist, or something else ... there is a place for you!

As United Methodists, we hold on to our Wesleyan heritage that "living the core of the Christian faith is revealed in Scripture, illuminated by tradition, vivified in personal experience, and confirmed by reason." This is who we are, and this is our Wesleyan heritage.

Beloved of God, we are called to be one people, rooted in Scripture, centered in Christ, serving in love, and united in the essentials of the faith. This is hard work, isn't it? And it's sacred work.

It is the ministry of reconciliation that Christ gave to each and every one of us.

Friends, beloved, our best witness in a hurting and in a divided world is to love each other as Christ has loved us, and to show the world the transforming power of the Holy Spirit to bind us together despite our differences. This is how we live out the gospel.

Remember, people still need to hear the good news of the Gospel, the good news of salvation, the good news of hope and peace through Jesus Christ. That is our work together. So, may the Lord make us one with Christ and one with each other and one in ministry to all the world.

To God be the glory for what God has done, for what God is doing, and for that which is yet to come. Let us embrace a future with hope.

Amen.

Benediction

Colossians 3:12-17

Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness. Let the Word of Christ—the Message—have the run of the house. Give it plenty of room in your lives. Instruct and direct one another using good common sense. And sing, sing your hearts out to God! Let every detail in your lives—words, actions, whatever—be done in the name of the Master, Jesus, thanking God the Father every step of the way.
