Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

When I think of Thanksgiving, my mind goes back to my home; mom's homemade rolls that made the whole house smell so amazing that you just wanted to run out the door and come back in just to have the olfactory experience over and over again; the left-overs sitting on the table on the back porch ready for sandwich making or pie nibbling. But most of all, I remember the family being together with a few extras tossed in for good measure. I am so thankful for the memories and the people who are a part of them.

As our kids grew up, we often helped to prepare and serve a turkey dinner to those in need of food or fellowship at the church. By the time we got home to our own meal, most were pretty tired of seeing, smelling, and tasting turkey, so we had the kids choose their favorite food of the year and made that our thanksgiving dinner. My favorite was the time we had shrimp cocktail and celery with cream cheese and peanut butter, and we were all very thankful for it.

My prayer for you this week is that you have the blessing of food and familiar folks with which to share it. If not, I pray you enjoy what you have and can spend your alone time reflecting on those things for which you are thankful. No matter what our situation might be, we must look for the good in each day and thank God for it.

Don't forget to come and celebrate with us this evening at 7pm.

Blessings for a wonderful holiday! I am very thankful for each of you!

Christmas Project: This year we will again be collecting gifts for the Painesville office of OhioGuidestone. Our Christmas tree will have ornaments listing gifts that are needed for the children of clients of Ohio Guidestone. The Guidestone programs offer help for adults (ages 25+) in job training to succeed in a professional environment. Their Comprehensive Care (ages 18-25) programs provide a holistic approach that supports mind, body, and soul. Ornaments will be on our tree starting December 2 & gifts will be collected until December 16. Please consider supporting this very worthwhile cause this Christmas season.
