Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Thanks to Nick for sharing the message today. The words of Philippians 4:4-9 are so beautiful for the season of Thanksgiving. Not only does it speak of giving thanks through prayer and supplication (pleas or petitions,) but it also speaks of those things about which we should be thinking. It is a beautiful list. Verse 8 reads, "Finally beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

So often we fill our heads with things that are not true, not honorable, not just, not pure, not pleasing, not commendable, not excellent nor worthy of praise; don't waste your time with that nonsense, there is for too much good in the world to get bogged down by these things. How can we be thankful and filled with gratitude for the good in people, in places, in God, if we are not thinking positively about the blessings we have received?

"Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say rejoice!"

Blessings, PJ
