Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Before I begin the message for today, let me thank everyone for your kind words of support and appreciation, I was humbled by the cards and their messages. It is truly my pleasure to serve this wonderful congregation and the Painesville community. We all have different jobs, but we are all in this ministry together. God bless you!

Today as we bring candles to the altar for those who have passed away over the last 12 months, I realize that each flame represents so many things; the love they shared, the work they did, the family they had, the friends for which they cared. Many have stories about the persons, some told, some held in hearts, but all very important because each name read is a person who has touched lives in countless ways.

Today we celebrate those lives in this special service, but more importantly we give pause to remember the blessings these people brought to so many, and maybe, just maybe, we can think of ways we can do a little more to bring kindness to a world that seems so full of hate, and hope to people who are in despair. When we remember our saints today, might we also find ways to keep their memory alive, by picking up some of the jobs left undone in their absence, some of the joys left unknown which they once shared.

Today as we share in Holy Communion, may we smile as we think of those with whom we have shared this precious sacrament and remember them as we remember the One who has welcomed them home.

I give thanks for all of our saints; those here today and those who have gone on to the Church Triumphant.

Blessings, PJ

*Call to Worship

Leader: "After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count,

People: from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages.

Leader: They were standing before the throne and before the Lamb,

People: from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages.

Leader: They were robed in white with palm branches in their hands,

People: from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages.

Leader: They cried out in a loud voice saying, Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

People: For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen."

Holy Communion and Offertory

Love

J. Marshall

Please come forward and place your offering in the plates at the ends of the first pew and come and partake in Holy Communion. The table of the Lord in the United Methodist Church is open to ALL people. John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Movement, felt it was a means of grace, a place to find the love of God. The cup is filled with grape juice as we are conscious of our brothers and sisters who may have a problem with addiction and we also want the children to feel welcome and participate. Again, the table is open to ALL.

*Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise him all creatures here below.

Praise him above the heavenly hosts. Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen
