"Remembering"

Pastor
Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Today is a very special day. Today we celebrate the people who have graduated to the Church Triumphant. Those we knew, those to whom we were related, those who have left their footprints on our hearts. Along with the members names there are many of the names that will be read that are not members of PUMC, but they are ones who have helped our members to be who they are. Parents, aunts, uncles, brothers, sisters and children who are beloved by a member of our community, who then became an adopted member of our church by association.

If we have left someone off the list, we apologize. The list is comprised of those who have shared their grief with us and allowed us to be a part of their healing. As a congregation we strive to absorb some of the pain of loss and work to help each other gain a new sense of family through our prayers, well wishes, and hugs.

As the Apostle Paul wrote to the church in Corinth about the body of Christ, the church, "If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it." (1 Corinthians 12:26) Therefore today, we are all saddened by what we all have lost through the death of one, and yet we are also all honored by the memory of these special people because the memories have been shared by those who are of part of the body of Christ we call Painesville United Methodist Church.

For all our saints who names are being lifted up today we thank God. Some had lives lasting less than one year, others had lives lasting over 101 years, but longevity is not what matters most.

A person's worth is all about the love given and the love received, the joy shared and the joy accepted, the gift God gave to all of us through the gift God gave to one of us. Thanks be to God who binds us together as His family!

Blessings, PJ
