"Acceptance"

Pastor
Jan Yandell

Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

I marvel every day at our youth and their dedication to God and to this church. Thanks to Margie and other adults who lead them, they are growing in faith and in stature and are wonderful examples of God's representatives in the world.

These young people speak more easily about the acceptance of others than many of my generation or even others of their own. They do not see the differences in people as posing a problem, but are thankful to have the variety of God's creation with which to interact.

How grateful I am for their witness of acceptance and for their willingness to share that message with all of us. How grateful I am for their presence in this congregation and their leadership in mission and worship.

By the way, those who would like to interact more with our youth should attend the opening Work Mission meeting on November 26th from 6-8 to begin planning next summer's work mission trip.

Blessings, PJ
