Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

If you missed last Sunday, you missed a lot! First, thank you to our four speakers who shared their witnesses to their faith. All were different, all were personal, all were special, and I appreciate each one taking the time to bring their story to share. Thank you Ava Haehn, Stacey Rodgers, Jay Taylor, and Cathy George. I also want to thank the entire Consecration Sunday team who wrote letters, created cards, sent them out, collected them, had the luncheons, organized the committee dinner, and continued to speak to each other and the congregation about the importance of asking the question, "What percentage of my income is God asking me to give?" Stacey, Dick, Nick, Louise, Matt, Bob, Kris, Cathy, Brian, Robert, Linda, Margie, Johanna, Lynda, and others who helped in a number of ways, thank you!! Thank you, too, to the youth who helped with the service last week. As they say, "It takes a village!" and I am so proud to be a part of this village of believers who are willing to put so much into her ministry and life.

Today, we celebrate World Communion Sunday, it makes me stop and think that our little village here at PUMC is connected to all those who follow Christ all around the globe. Like any world endeavor, there will be challenges, cultural differences, and disagreements about things, but there is not one person in this village or in the greater realm of Christianity that can say they are not a child of God, and not one can say to any other that they do not belong. In sharing the cup and bread today, we share it with the world, everyone who calls themselves a Christian, everyone who takes personally the words of Jesus when he said, "This is my body, broken for you. This is my blood, shed for you! Do this in remembrance of me."

Let us celebrate with great joy! God is good!!

Blessings, PJ

Greetings & Announcements

Prelude Amazing Grace arr. Keene

Children's Time

*Call to Worship

Leader: Paul reminds us to be grateful to God for all who have crossed our path thus far, and for those whom we have yet to meet.

People: John Wesley said, "The world is my parish!" Let us gratefully share Christ with the world.

Leader: Paul reminds us to not be ashamed, for we are called with a holy calling.

People: We will not be ashamed of our calling by Christ, nor of the message of his love.

Leader: Paul reminds us that God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

People: Let us use the spirit of power, love, and self-discipline to take the "Bread of Life" and cure the world of its spiritual hunger.

*Opening Hymn I Come With Joy UMH #617

Prayer Requests

Call to Prayer Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying FWS# 2193

"Lord, listen to your children praying. Lord, send your Spirit in this place.
Lord, listen to your children praying, send us love, send us power, send us grace."

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen

Anthem Nearer, My God, to Thee arr. Stevens
(Men's Chorus)

Scripture 2 Timothy 1:1-14 Page 199, NT, pew Bible

Message Letters in the Fall: Paul to Timothy; the Church to the World Pastor Jan

Hymn of Contemplation One Bread, One Body UMH #620

Offertory Here I Am, Lord arr. J. Marshall

Holy Communion

Please come forward and place your offering for the day in the baskets at the end of the front pew, then go to partake in Holy Communion. The Table of the Lord is open to all people. This is the Lord's Table and Jesus welcomes all. The cup is filled with grape juice as we want children and those suffering from addiction to feel comfortable and welcome. Please take communion (the baggie with a grape and cracker) to someone you know who could not be with us today.

*Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise him all creatures here below.
Praise him above the heavenly hosts. Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen
