Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

Having been away from the church for a few weeks gave me time to step back and reflect on the many aspects of the work I have been called to do and why it remains such a passion for me. I had a chance to watch the live stream of our worship and look at it as a bystander. I had time to pray about our purpose in the community and really listen for God's instructions and guidance.

I am so grateful to Alison, Sondra and Nick for their preaching and I know there are others who could step in and do the same. I am so thankful to be a part of such a loving congregation who sincerely cares for one another and find ways to express that care. I am so honored to lead a group of people who are deliberate about their faith, expressing it in participation, music, witness, community involvement and so many other ways. I am honest when I say that we have work to do financially, and spiritually, but that we are on the right path toward being a sustainable entity serving God.

What we are now is different than what we were before, but what we are striving to become is even different than what we are. I am pushing for the day when our faith in Jesus Christ is so evident in our outreach, education and giving that people will look to PUMC and proclaim, "That is a beautiful building, filled with beautiful people, who are making a beautiful difference in Painesville and the world by exemplifying beautifully the beautiful God they serve." And it will happen because, it is, you are, and God is!

God is calling us to give a percentage of our income to make that happen! You can give to many other places or not give at all, but God is calling you to be part of a life transforming mission. It is not our mission, it is God's mission and we are privileged to have the opportunity to be a part of it.

See you next week in worship and at the Consecration Brunch!
Blessings, PJ

*Call to Worship

Leader: James asks, "Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom."

People: Let us live our lives with wisdom born of God's blessings.

Leader: In wisdom may you see your actions as an offering to God. In wisdom may you see your offering as an action of your faith.

People: Let us live our lives with wisdom born of God's blessings.

Leader: In wisdom may you worship the God who blesses you with everything you need. In wisdom may you give back to God from those blessings as an act of worship.

People: Let us live our lives with wisdom born of God's blessings.

Leader: James states, "The wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy."

People: Let us live our lives with wisdom born of God's blessings.

*Passing the Peace of Christ, Prayer Requests, Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen"
