Dear Friends and Friends I have not yet met,

O, how I miss being among you. I am so grateful for Rev. Sondra Snode and her willingness to share today's message and serve Holy Communion. It is wonderful to have a connectional church where colleagues can work together to benefit the worship and growth of our churches.

As people begin to return to the routine of the school year schedules, I pray we will be seeing some folks who have been away this summer or busy with activities on weekends. As I stated last week, I believe God has brought all of us together in this place, at this time for a particular purpose. If, in the next few weeks there are people who sit near you, perhaps in your neighborhood that you have not seen for a few weeks, please take a moment to get one of the cards from your neighborhood box and send it to them. This reminds them that they are missed and that their presence in our community is important. That is why the neighborhoods work, if everyone takes a moment to look around them and notice new people, or miss others.

As we begin the Fall Schedule, I hope you (yes, each of you) will take time to invite friends and family to come be a part of what is happening here at PUMC. Every week is a "Bring a Friend to Church Sunday!" And the only way we grow is if each one of us takes on the responsibility and joy of personally inviting others to be a part of our ministry team. (and by team, I mean each person who walks through our doors!)

Have a wonderful Labor Day! See you soon.

Blessings,

PJ and her new left knee.

*Call to Worship

Leader: O God, you are present with us in more ways than we can count –

People: You turn confusion into order, condemnation into deliverance, and isolation into fellowship. We thank you for all the ways you are present.

Leader: O God, you are present with us in more ways than we can count -

People: In all creation, for you are the creator. In Christ, by manifesting your love for us; and in Spirit, for you have given us a guide and advocate. We thank you for all the ways you are present. And now, O God, make us fully present with you.

Passing the Peace of Christ; Prayer Requests and Celebrations, Call to Prayer, Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen."

Holy Communion and Offertory

Summer Pastorale

Shackelford

Please come forward and place your offering in the plates at the ends of the first pew and come and partake in Holy Communion. The table of the Lord in the United Methodist Church is open to ALL people. John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Movement, felt it was a means of grace, a place to find the love of God. The cup is filled with grape juice as we are conscious of our brothers and sisters who may have a problem with addiction and we also want the children to feel welcome and participate. Again, the table is open to ALL.

*Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise him all creatures here below.
Praise him above the heavenly hosts. Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen
