A great way to serve Christ Feed the hungry Touch the Community

Thirty (30) volunteers from CCMH are needed at 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, March 10, to prepare 15,000 food packages to be donated to our next-door neighbor, the Mountain Home Food Basket. The food packages will be assembled here in our Worship Center.

The food items will be purchased from Pac-Sac, a Christian ministry group, by Sean Taylor, owner of Thrivent Financial Company. The staff of Thrivent Financial will bring 10 volunteers to help with the project. Our elders have agreed that CCMH will provide the space for the work, and we want to provide the additional 30 volunteers from our church.

The packaging project runs from 9:30 until noon, after which a catered lunch will be provided for volunteers. NOTE: Making the food packages requires standing at tables, so volunteers need to be able to do that. So please set aside that Thursday morning, March 10, to join in and help feed the hungry and touch our community in the name of Jesus.

A sign-up list is at the back of our Worship Center.

Why is it that when life gets rough we tend to try and fix it all by ourselves? Don't we realize that help is only a prayer away? Let the prayer warriors help you. Simply let any of us know and we will go to work. As a group the prayer warriors are awesome. We don't judge or question we just take each request and pray. We would love to have you join us on Sunday mornings. 9:00 back by the Kids area.

PSST! I WILL SAY A LITTLE PRAYER FOR YOU!

Salon Red is sponsoring Lisa with Nails by Lisa, a licensed professional, to offer once a month on the second Thursday of the month free manicure and pedicure treatments to seniors 60 and above--both women and men. Those younger than 60 that have health problems preventing them from taking care of their own nails could also benefit from this service. Appointments are now being taken by calling the church for the first date, which begins March 10 from 9 am to 1 pm.
