From the Pastor's Pen

Dear Everybody,

Our Lenten walk is centered on the “I Am” statements of Jesus.

1. I am the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6).

Jesus is saying to the Pharisees that: My very presence is testimony to the truth of God. The distance you choose to stand apart from me is the distance you are from the truth of the reality of God's active presence. In order to change your reality, you must first draw near to Christ.

2. I am the bread of life (John 6:35). Your hunger never ends. If you have ever fed a teenager, then you really know what this means. They are always hungry. Your soul needs constant sustenance; you need to know God is with you, helping you. Jesus satisfies. When you believe in him and trust him, your soul will never be hungry again.

3. I am the door (John 10:9). Sometimes doors close. A big door that closes is death. Oh, but look! It is opened again!

4. I am the Good Shepherd (John 10:11). The world feels complicated. Evil confuses. We need a good leader to follow. Follow Jesus; you will not be disappointed.

5. I am the Vine (John 15:5). Sustenance once more; you might be pruned back for new growth, but attached to the vine, life is running toward you and in you. Do not be afraid.

6. I am the Light of the World (John 8:12). Someone was wondering, “Is this the worst of times? Are we in the last days?” Well, as Jesus said, “But of that day and hour knows no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only (Matthew 24: 36). We are studying in Sunday School Matthew 24 THIS Sunday, where Jesus discusses the end times—come and learn! There have been many times of agony in the history of humankind. Remember the Russian revolution or the Holocaust? There is a very present evil in our world that must be addressed and defeated, but as to the end of time, we trust in God who holds all time and is the Alpha and Omega.

All of this is to say, Jesus is the light of the world in the midst of the present darkness. Walk toward the light, he shines brightly! Do not be afraid; if you care about seeing and living within this light then you ultimately will. God will not let you go.

7. I am the resurrection and the life (John 11: 25-26). This reminds us of what awaits us: blessed assurance, the answer, our hope and joy, your place set at the table, your cup filled to over-flowing, your loved ones surrounding you and the sound of laughter echoing throughout heaven.

How fortunate to walk with you on this sacred journey. I remain yours....and honored,

Kary

2015 Women's Retreat

Wade In!
God's Gonna Trouble the Water

March 27-28-2015

Christ the King Retreat Center
Arrive 5pm-7pm Friday
Stay through noon Saturday

"We women of Faith sometimes have a time staying in the water of belief, the water of baptism, the water of who we are as children of God. We forget that we are precious and that we have something essential to offer the work of God in this world. The goal of this retreat will be to wade back into the water that brings healing, to experience the 'troubling' of God, and to be renewed in our lives, our relationships, and our callings."

Dr. Cynthia Rigby~ Speaker
Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary

Registration forms are available in the church office.

Lenten Devotionals

The Worship Committee purchased a Lenten Devotional for each family called Draw Near. It has a daily devotional from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday. . There are still some available in the narthex or the church office.

Dear People,

When Willie Johnson was our yardman, he used to welcome spring or fall by praising the Lord be he was making the earth beautiful for his people, and he always said PEOPLE and never FOLKS because “people” meant believers and were special. I started to address you as “Dear Folks” and thought of Willie. He was working for us when Allen Guthrie was our minister, and one time when I went over to see how Willie was (he had been sick), I ran into Allen which made him sort of special because I loved Willie; he was my yardman too. And to think that Allen cared about him, too gave me a special feeling.

The Lord was blessing his people the first part of this WINTRY week with a glorious soft rain that lasted a great part of the day, and I thought of Willie – and Allen. It is good to have happy memories, ain’t it?

I particularly like the letters that Kary writes at the first of the newsletter. They have such a special meaning. Thank you, Kary. I’m so impressed with all that’s going on there! The work that Lou Ann and Ruth Ann are doing with the kids, the fact that there is so much activity with the middle schoolers and the highs! Plus the men and women’s meetings sound busy! Congratulation on your good work!

I was ailing last week and the one before, and finally went to the doctor and found out it is arthritis. The doctor said that arthritis acts up sometimes and then abates. Thank goodness it has now abated, and I hope it will remain so; it’s no fun when it decides to “act up”.

Church which I usually attend is in the Rolling Meadows chapel at one o’clock Sunday, and the pastor is woman named Nina Conner. I like her, and I especially like the way she prays. It’s as if she’s talking to God and thanking him for his goodness to us. She is a non–denominational minister although she was a Baptist when she was young. The very special thing is every other Sunday and Wednesday when a minister from the Presbyterian Church in Seymour who lives in Wichita Falls preaches in the chapel. I like him very much although I have not attended his services since Christmas because of the pesky arthritis. Some of my new friends here who come to see me tell me that the attendance there has increased in numbers because he has become so well liked. I hope to start going again the 15th when he’ll be back.

Meanwhile, happy New Year. God Bless you all, A. M.      Alice      (Alice Moore)
