I. INTRODUCTION

- a. Unlike Veterans Day when we remember all of those who have served our nation in the military, Memorial Day is set aside especially for those who have given “that last full measure of devotion”. They gave their lives for our country and we remember their sacrifice on this day.
- b. Memorial Day was first observed informally after the Civil War. First Proclaimed by Gen John Logan, Commander of the Union Veterans Group, The Grand Army of the Republic, in 1868. Many Southern States recognized Confederate Dead on a separate holiday called Confederate Memorial Day until After WWI when Memorial Day shifted to from a remembrance of Civil War Dead to the dead of all American Wars.
- c. Remember the over 1.3 million men and women who have giving their lives for our country over the last 241 years.
- d. One trait that these men and women had was courage.
- e. We might not be called upon to give our life for our country but all of us require some type of courage to face life

II. COURAGE

- a. Faith is the absence of doubt but the decision to move forward in the face of doubt
- b. So, Courage is not the absence of fear but the willingness to move forward in the face of fear
- c. What kind of Courage do you need?
 - i. Courage to keep smiling after a great loss
 - ii. Courage to keep hoping after a great disappointment

- iii. Courage to keep trusting after a great betrayal
- iv. Courage to keep living after a great loss
- v. Courage to keep loving after a great hurt.
- d. “Do you know what hurts so very much? It's love. Love is the strongest force in the world, and when it is blocked that means pain. There are two things we can do when this happens. We can kill that love so that it stops hurting. But then of course part of us dies, too. Or we can ask God to open up another route for that love to travel.” - Corrie Ten Boom
- e. The great enemy of courage is fear:
 - i. Fear of rejection
 - ii. Fear of failure
 - iii. Fear of loss
 - iv. Fear of pain
 - v. Fear of death
 - vi. Fear of shame
 - vii. Fear of people
 - viii. Fear of being alone
- f. Over and Over the Bible tells us not to fear:
 - i. Deuteronomy 31:6 Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, He is the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you.
 - ii. Psalms 27:1 The LORD is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid? (NKJV)
 - iii. Psalms 34:4 I sought the Lord, and He heard me, And delivered me from all my fears..
 - iv. Psalms 34:7 The Angel of the Lord encamps all around those who fear Him and delivers them.
