“Youth Spotlight”

Master Za’Heem Blow-Bradshaw

Za’Heem is the son of Sister Krystal Bradshaw, the brother of Kaylan Blow-Bradshaw and Louis Freeman, and the great grandson of Sister Annie Dockery. Za’Heem is a 3rd grade student at Parkview Elementary School in Portsmouth with Honor Roll and perfect attendance. His favorite subjects include Science, Reading, and History. Za’Heem’s goal is to have great success and get all “A’s” in school. He plays baseball and football but when he grows up, he wants to be a Doctor.

As an active member of the Youth Ministry, Za’Heem attends the Sunday School Primary Class, Vacation Bible School, and participates with the Steelettes Youth Choir and Junior Missionaries. His favorite scripture, Exodus 20:12, “Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee” and his favorite Christian song, “I’m A Believer”.

We are blessed to have Za’Heem as part of our Youth Ministry. Let’s give a loud “Bless You and Shout Out” to Master Za’Heem Blow-Bradshaw, our “Youth in the Spotlight.”
