

The Selfer's Prayer

"I hereby surrender everything that I am, and have, and ever will be. I take my hands off my life and release every relationship to You – every habit, every goal, my health, my wealth, and everything that means anything. I surrender it all to You. And by faith I take my place at the Cross, believing that when the Lord Jesus was crucified, according to Your Word, I was crucified with Him; when He was buried, I was buried; when He was raised from the dead, I was raised with Him.

So, I deny myself the right to rule and reign in my own life and take up the Cross and believe that I was raised from the dead and seated at your right hand. I thank You for saving me from my sins and myself. And from this moment on I am trusting You to live Your life in me and through me to do what I can't do and quit what I can't quit and start what I can't start – that You might receive all the glory.

I thank You now by faith for accepting me in the Lord Jesus, for giving me Your grace, Your freedom, Your joy, Your victory, and Your righteousness as my inheritance in the Lord Jesus Christ. So even if I don't feel anything, I know that Your Word is true. I am counting on Your Spirit to do what Your Word says. . . to set me free from myself, that Your resurrection life may be lived out through me, and that You may receive all the glory. I thank You and praise You for victory right now in Jesus' name, amen."
