The Scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it is written: "The Spirit of the LORD is on me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor." Luke 4:17-19/Isaiah 61:1-2

Great Expectation

August is finally here, and my family and I are beyond elated to officially join the Deep Creek Family. I come with excitement and great expectations for what God has in store for us all.

I believe in doing things with excellence and I have high expectations for myself and those around me. A few years ago, one of my mentors challenged me by telling me to lower my expectations for both myself and others. I am very much a “Type A” person, so this was challenging for me to wrap my head around.

We are all wired differently, and with great purpose. And while we should all strive to be the best version of ourselves, we must remember Psalm 46:10, “Be still and Know.” In The Message Translation it reads “Cease Striving.” Sometimes lofty expectations can drive our minds and rule our hearts, for better AND for worse. No matter how hard I try to meet expectations I have set for myself, or that have been set for me, it will not hold a candle to what God can do.

You see, my friend was reminding me that it is not about performance, but obedience. God’s desire for us is not to run ourselves ragged trying to perfect things and please one another. Instead, He simply wants us to be still and to know Him. When we are in constant communion with Him, He can do whatever He chooses through us, but first, we must obey. Be still. Know.

God is faithful, keeps His promises, and shows up at the right time. Last November, I stepped away from 18 years of Youth Ministry to pursue the call to be a Senior Pastor. I was not quite sure what to expect transition other than the fact that it might be It was certainly both, but in each moment, I still my heart and expect God to show up. My Creek” has been one divine moment to the has blown me away in His provision and not expect Him to stop now!

I know that God has great things in store for the Deep Creek Family. I am honored to have already been a part of these pictures from ministry this summer surrounding this article , and I am excited about the future pictures and stories we will tell of how God is working among us.

I am not perfect, and I realize I might fail to meet my own expectations and perhaps a few that are set for me. Thank you in advance for loving me through it! My prayer is that we will all heed the advice of my friend. Let’s all focus on obedience. Let’s commit to being still before the Lord and waiting patiently with great expectation for what He can do and for what He WILL do! I pray that we always have great expectation for how God is going to move among us here at “The Creek.”

Be Encouraged,

The Art of Giving

We give of ourselves when we give gifts of the heart:
Love, kindness, joy, understanding, sympathy, tolerance, forgiveness.

We give of ourselves when we give gifts of the mind:
Ideas, dreams, purposes, ideals, principles, plans, projects, poetry.

We give of ourselves when we give gifts of the spirit:
Prayer, vision, beauty, aspiration, peace, faith.

We give of ourselves when we give the gift of words:
Encouragement, inspiration, guidance.

Emerson said it well:
“Rings and jewels are not gifts, but apologies for gifts.
The only true gift is a portion of thyself.”

From The Art of Living by Wilfred A. Peterson.

Ministry Team Signups in August

For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do. Ephesians 2:10

What are the good works God has planned for you? Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 12:27, “Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.” Throughout that chapter, Paul writes about how all the parts of the body are to work together to make the body function well. We need you to step up and sign up to fulfill your function in the Body of Christ here at The Creek. Below is a list of each area of ministry and what teams come together to complete that ministry. Take time to ask God where He has planned for you to work.

Deacons... Leading through Service

It’s time for Deacon
Nominations for the upcoming church year. With the Board of Elders in place, Deacon duties no longer include church business. Deacon responsibilities are to minister to the church body, assist with the benevolence ministry, and assist the pastor in the ordinances of Baptism and Communion.

If you are interested in serving as a Deacon, please contact Woodie Gough, your family deacon or Barbara Todd. You will be contacted this month to confirm your desire to serve. Please consider your gifts and seek God’s direction about serving in this ministry at The Creek.
