The Scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it is written: "The Spirit of the LORD is on me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor." Luke 4:17-19/Isaiah 61:1-2

Understanding Christmas

Pastor Brady

[John 1:11] He came unto his own, and his own received him not. [12] But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: [13] Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. [14] And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Christmas is a time of memories, mostly of childhood. I can remember so many things about Christmases from my childhood, and I am sure that most of you can as well. There were the traditions: the tree, the meals, the Christmas programs and the gifts. For the most part, my mother and daddy were responsible for these memories. They decided the places we would go, the things we would do, and the messages we would hear. The only exception was school, where the faculty decided what exposure we would have to Christmas. Of course, back then the people at Boonville

School (elementary and high) were not concerned about separating religion from education. Quite to the contrary, they were concerned that Christianity might not be taught in the home, so some of my teachers read the Bible to the class daily.

In the Old Testament there is a passage where Moses is recalling to the Israelites all that the Lord God had done and would do for them. He speaks of the great legal code that the Lord God had given to them:

“See, I have taught you decrees and laws as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to take possession of it. Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these decrees and say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’ What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him? [8] And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous decrees and laws as this body of laws I am setting before you today?

“Only be careful and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them. [10] Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when he said to me, ‘Assemble the people before me to hear my words so that they may learn to revere me as long as they live in the land and may teach them to their children.’” (Deuteronomy 4:5-10)

The question is this: Are you diligent to teach your children and your grandchildren the real meaning of Christmas, or are you satisfied for them to remember fine presents, good food and Christmas Carols on the CD Player (or whatever), as great as they are? Is all that they remember about the meaning of Christmas—the Christmas Story as told by Luke? As wonderful as the Luke account of our Lord’s birth is, it will not save our children and grandchildren from hell. Unless the story in the Gospel of Luke is understood in the context of the Gospel of John then our children and grandchildren will be lost. What a shame that in this once great nation the message of Christmas has been abandoned. No longer are our school teachers allowed to teach the real story. Therefore, we must know the story ourselves and it must be taught in our homes to our children and grandchildren?

John 1, verse 14 tells us that “the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.” This is the essential truth of Christmas. And what does it mean? Herein is the meaning of Christmas: “But as many as received him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name: [13] Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” (John 1:12 – 13)

Are you teaching your children John 1? Its truth is central to our faith.
Think about that!

Let the Stable Still Astonish

Let the stable still astonish;
straw-dirt floor, dull eyes,
dusty flanks of donkeys, oxen;
Crumbling, crooked walls;
no bed to carry that pain.
And then, the child,
rag-wrapped, laid to cry
in a trough.

Who would have chosen this?
Who would have said: "Yes,
let the God of all the heavens and earth
be born here, in this place?"

Who but the same God who stands in the darker, fouler rooms of our hearts
And says, "Yes,
Let the God of Heaven and Earth be born here—
In this place."
