The Scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it is written: "The Spirit of the LORD is on me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor." Luke 4:17-19/Isaiah 61:1-2

Lead Me to the Cross

It is hard to believe the year 2020 is here. The phrase “Lead Me to the Cross” keeps coming to mind in my prayers for our congregation entering a new year. I do pray for everyone to have good health, renewed relationships, strengthened marriages, and for those enduring health concerns in the new year. But I am also mindful that for others this year will bring loss, heartache, frustration and new challenges.

I pray 2020 is a year we renew and strengthen our relationship with Jesus. I pray it is a year when we humbly come before God saying, “Lead Me to the Cross.” A few ways we can strengthen our relationship with God and draw nearer to the Cross are being faithful in worship attendance, active in Bible study, and using our gifts to find opportunities to serve not only at church, but also in the community.

The more we are filling our cup with Christ, the more we will find ourselves growing in our faith, drawing closer to the Cross, and experiencing more joy and peace in our everyday life.

The chorus to a worship song entitled “Lead Me to the Cross” by Hillsong United reads:

Lead me to the cross
Where Your love poured out
Bring me to my knees
Lord I lay me down
Rid me of myself
I belong to You
Lead me, lead me to the cross

God, I thank You for the congregation at Deep Creek Baptist. I pray that our heart’s desire is to draw close to You and to the cross this year, I also pray that we will be bold in bringing others to the Cross so they can experience Your abundant love poured out. Help us be obedient to where You are leading us this year. Amen

Be Encouraged,
Pastor Nathan

The day I found out I was pregnant I was very upset and didn't know what to do. So many different emotions. And I knew it would be very hard, especially while I was still in college. I didn't know how I was going to tell my parents, my family or my church. I felt like a terrible person and didn't want anyone to know. After two positive pregnancy tests, I decided to go to Compassion Care Center. It was one of the best decisions I could have made.

Upon arrival, I took another pregnancy test which was positive and followed up with an ultrasound. Seeing my little baby on the ultrasound, I was lost for words. I had no idea what I would do. I had so many emotions, but felt like I had no one. After my ultrasound, I talked with Shonda about life, and about this new baby. I let her know the way I felt—about all my emotions: how to tell my parents, how bad a person I thought I was... She sat down and talked with me, explaining that this baby is a blessing. Even though this baby was not planned by me, God had planned it for me. She explained that even though I was still in college and still living at home, she knew I could do this and get through this. Shonda let me know she was there for me if I needed her, and we stayed in contact after that. After talking about my life, the new baby, and religion, we prayed together. After we prayed, all my emotions just bubbled up. I cried for a long time but was realizing, because of what she said, that I can get through this and was going to do everything I could to be the best mom for this baby. Then Shonda gave me a bag with lots of information for new moms.

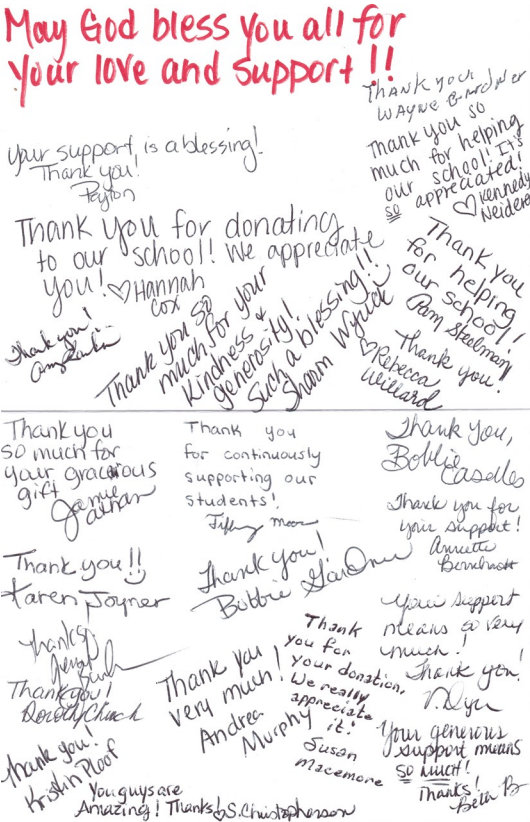

After that meeting, I went home to tell my parents. It was very hard for them to cope at first but they did eventually accept the news. I went back to Compassion Care every week after that to take classes that offered videos about pregnancy and babies. Watching these videos helped me so much and gave me so much information I did not know. I learned about pregnancy and caring for my newborn. And I earned points for watching the videos and doing homework that I could use to "purchase" maternity clothes, baby clothes, diapers, wipes and toys. These items helped me tremendously.

Without Compassion Care offering these classes and items I wouldn't have known what to do. I have learned so much I didn't know, and they have given me the best support. I absolutely love everyone there and appreciate all they have done for me and my baby. I just recently had my daughter and she has become my entire life. There are no words to explain the love you will have for your child. Many people would say those same words to me before I had my baby and I did not understand—but now it all makes sense. She is my absolute everything. I know one thing though—without Compassion Care Center, I would not have been able to do this. They were a lifesaver and I cannot express how very thankful I am that they were there for me every step of the way. I hope that anyone who has this experience will go to Compassion Care and get the help and support you need. They are truly Life Savers! Thank you so much to Jennifer, Shonda, and Bonnie for giving me the support and help I needed.
