Adjusted Church Office Hours in May

Monday 9 am - 1 pm

I will check voicemail and email regularly when out of the office. So, please leave a voice message or email me. I will get back with you. Stay safe. Judy

The Scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it is written: "The Spirit of the LORD is on me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor." Luke 4:17-19/Isaiah 61:1-2

Resting in God’s Presence

I am not sure where you were on the evening of December 31, 2019, but I have a good hunch that you were not thinking that the new year would bring what it has in the past few months. What a year it has been, and even though many uncertainties remain—one thing that has not and will not change! God’s love for you is deep and His plans are perfect. While we might not always understand those plans, we do know we can continue to trust in the waiting. May could well be another month of waiting, but together, we will continue to persevere and cling to the promises of God.

Please know that you and your family are constantly in my thoughts and prayers. Although we are not present at church, I am proud of how we have all embraced technology to stay connected to worship with one another on Sunday mornings. Please continue to keep your family deacon informed of any need that arises for you and your family during this time. If you have specific prayer requests, please do not hesitate to call or email me or your family deacon. We are here for you and want to support you any way we can!

This month in worship we are going to look at what it means to rest in God’s presence. We do not have all the answers, but God’s Word invites us to pause even amid chaos and a different pace of life to be still and know that the Lord is God. During our Sunday morning worship times this month we look closer at five different Psalms. Each one is a reminder that God is a loving Father who protects and provides for His children.

God is faithful and true and His goodness knows no limits. In God’s presence we find rest for our souls, for He alone is the source of life. I recognize that for some these days feel like Groundhog Day, while others are barely able to keep your head above water. It is my prayer that our Sunday morning worship times in May will be a refreshing time for your soul. A time of rest and renewal. I pray that you will be able to breathe in deep, inhaling God’s presence and Word, and exhale His faithfulness, goodness and continued blessings all around.

Be Encouraged,
Pastor Nathan

TEACHER APPRECIATION MAY 4-8

A Teacher’s Prayer
James J. Metcalf

I want to teach my students how—
To live this life on earth,
To face its struggles and its strife
And to improve their worth.

Not just the lesson in a book,
Or how the rivers flow,
But to choose the proper path
Wherever they may go.

To understand eternal truth,
And know right from wrong,
And gather all the beauty of
A flower and a song,

For if I help the world to grow
In wisdom and grace,
Then I feel that I have won
And I have filled my place.

And so I ask your guidance, God
That I may do my part,
For character and confidence
And happiness of heart.

*Dear Pastor Nathan Tuttle and Deep Creek Baptist Church Fellowship,
The family of Margaret Jackson Allgood
would like to thank you for your support,
phone calls, cards, and food during our loss.
Sincerely,
Georgia Jackson Family*

Calendar

Due to the pandemic, much has been postponed. But we look forward to the time we can reunite for times of fellowship and celebration.

Until such time, pray for each other, meet online Sunday mornings for worship, and remember that old hymn,

“God Be With You.”
God be with you till we meet again.
‘Neath His wings protecting hide you,
Daily manna still provide you—
God be with you till we meet again.

*Remembering your thoughtfulness and all the joy it brought.
Thank you for the prayer blanket. We are blessed to have caring church families and friends. I thank you so much for your prayers.
Love In Christ,
Gay Reavis*

*I pray that you will be able to breathe in deep,
inhaling God's presence and Word,
and exhale His faithfulness, goodness

GIVING OF TITHES AND OFFERINGS

Thank you for your faithfulness in supporting the Lord's ministry at The Creek. It is important that we keep our financial commitment to our mission, and ministry partners, along with supporting the fixed expenses the church still incurs even if we are not present in the building.

WAYS TO GIVE

1) Mail a Check to the Church

Deep Creek Baptist Church
2401 Old Stage Road
Yadkinville, NC 27055

2) Give Online

www.mydeepcreekbc.com...A link to donate online is on the home page of our church website (top left corner).

Sunday Morning Online Worship Service at 10:15 am

Our Worship Services continue online at 10:15 on Sunday mornings using the Webex Service. This is a great opportunity for us to connect using technology. You can also call and join the service from your landline or cell phone. The web link and call-in information are included in the Weekend Update email.

ZOOMING with Children & Youth

The Zoom time with our children and youth groups each week has been going well with Kayla and Jody. Thank you parents for ensuring that your kids are able to participate. It is definitely something they look forward to each week! This is a great time for our young people to see each other's faces, engage in a Bible study and be able to pray with one another.

FRIENDS IN HOPE is a free, confidential peer support group for people who have a diagnosis of depression, have symptoms of depression or sadness, or have a mental disorder along with depression.

The group will be facilitated by a Certified Peer Support Specialist who is also an RN and a co-facilitator. Everyone will be invited, but not required to share their story.

Those who have concurrent diagnoses of depression with other mental disorders are welcome.

Meetings are held the 2nd Tuesday of every month. We meet in the former Hoots Memorial Hospital building. Use the front entry. Our meeting room is just beyond the receptionist desk.
