The Scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it is written: “The Spirit of the LORD is on me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor.” Luke 4:17-19/Isaiah 61:1-2

Greetings in the NAME of CHRIST!
We live in a hurried world. Life seems to move at the speed of light and no one wants to slow down and just wait. Everyone wants something and they want it yesterday. Instant gratification is the “pox” of our age. Christians are not immune; we too have fallen prey to this “pox” of our culture.

Sad, but true, many Christians apply this hurried standard to their spiritual lives. The truth is that God works in His sovereign way and in His perfect time. Waiting on God is easy to say, but far more difficult to practice. We are not a patient people. We want it now and we want it our way. Hmm.....

In contrast, the Bible teaches that God “acts on behalf of those that wait upon Him.” (Isaiah 64:4, NIV) Waiting on God is a “spiritual discipline” we all need to learn if we want to grow in our spiritual life. God does not grow up saints into spiritual maturity overnight. Spiritual growth takes a lifetime. It involves waiting on God to chisel and mold us to look like Jesus. This process is called sanctification, to be made holy as God is holy.

Why are we called to wait? Obviously the end state is so that God, the divine potter can do His work in our lives and mold us into the image of Christ. Let me briefly share four reasons why God calls believers to wait upon Him.

First, God is working in our lives to prepare us for a blessing. What we desire might not be in our best interest, or the timing might not be right. God is our Heavenly Father and He does know best and will provide what we need at the right time. We need to trust that God does in fact have our best interest at heart.

Second, waiting on God builds our confidence in God. Waiting on God causes us to depend upon Him. God is with us in all circumstances, good and bad. We can turn to God in any situation and His presence will comfort us.

Third, sometimes God will require us to wait because of His providence, “seeing ahead to provide,” because events and people are not ready to fulfill His will. Dr. Tony Evans tells us that, “when God is silent, He is not still.” The life of Joseph is a good illustration here. Yet, through all Joseph’s troubles, the Bible continually reminds us that, “The LORD was with Joseph.” That’s GOOD NEWS!

Lastly, waiting on God sometimes means He withholds a blessing to protect us from unforeseen events or consequences. I have witnessed this in my own life while on active duty in the Army as a pastor. God’s vision is always 20/20—perfect. It is only when I have looked in the “rearview mirror” that I have seen God’s wisdom and perfect timing of having me wait for His blessing.

The hurried culture in which we live will “wear us out.” God did not design us to move at the speed of light and to burn ourselves out like some passing comet. No, God designed us to rest and wait upon Him. Isaiah had it right, “but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.” (Isaiah 40:31, KJV) Wise words from God’s Word, may we have ears to hear!

Keep moving to the HIGH GROUND!
