Coming Home

I must admit, making the drive from the coast up this way to begin this new journey God has called me to was one of the strangest feelings I have ever experienced. I have made the trek to the Winston-Salem area many times over the past 11 years for holidays and family celebrations, but we have always returned east. It was a surreal moment pulling away and making the trip this way knowing there was no immediate plan to return.

Many things were going through my mind during this drive; I was missing my wife and family, processing logistics of closing on the house, getting ready for the moving truck, and thinking about Deep Creek and how God is going to weave our stories together for His perfect plan. It was very natural to let the bag of emotions take over; this is hard, why is all this happening, God—are you sure about this?

As I was strolling up I-73 looking out at the sun setting over the beautiful green rolling hills, I looked up and saw the Greensboro/Winston-Salem road signs. As I was listening to David Crowder, the following song came on ; “Oh My God, I’m Coming Home.”

That was a great God wink from above. I felt God’s peace about His calling on my life and what this new journey will bring. The words to this simple song are as follows: “Oh my God I’m coming home, Dance all day and sing along, To the glory hallelujah, Oh my God I’m coming home, Oh my God I’m coming home, Oh my God I’m coming home.”

For Tara and me, this is coming home. It has been surreal making small world connections and running into old friends. We are excited about getting to know each of you better and look forward to sharing life with you. Speaking of coming home, I want to direct your attention to a special day in the life of Deep Creek. Our Annual Homecoming will be Sunday, September 22. Along with a special morning worship service (followed by a covered dish luncheon), we are also blessed to have the music group, Salmon Sisters, lead us for a 7:00 pm evening service.

I encourage you to reach out to a family who has not been at Deep Creek in a while and invite them to Homecoming. What a great time to invite that certain family or person you know who does not have a church home and might want to call Deep Creek theirs. We as God’s children at Deep Creek are humbly following the call to be “Christ-Centered, Bible-Based, and Ministry Focused,” and I am confident there are individuals and families in our area who would love to join us on this faith journey.

Be Encouraged,

Pastor Nathan

Before Prayer

I weave a silence on my lips,
I weave a silence into my mind,
I weave a silence within my heart.
I close my ears to distractions,
I close my eyes to attentions,
I close my heart to temptations.
Calm me, O Lord, as you stilled the storm,
Still me, O Lord, keep me from harm.
Let all the tumult within me cease,
Enfold me, Lord, in your peace.

We're Collecting Change

The glass container in our foyer is for Change.

Why?

For Missions.

The immediate missions would be Yadkin Christian Ministries as well as Lottie Moon. By starting now, we hope and pray to have a generous gift for these two missions by December.

On Mission Collection

Depends type undergarments for New Horizons Adult Daycare will be collected this month by Catrina Renegar and Ann Ray. See Anny Ray or leave your donation in the church foyer.

Parents of Children With Autism

This a new group that will begin meeting at Deep Creek beginning Thursday, September 12, at 6:00 pm.

If you know a family who would benefit from this ministry, be sure to invite them to participate.

See Debbie Hoots for more information.

Oh, that today my garments might be vestments, my meals sacraments, my house a temple, my table an altar, my speech incense and myself a priest. Charles Spurgeon

So, we ask that all of you begin to speak about it to your friends and family. We also would like to put UPWARD signs in your front yards. If you are interested in doing this, please contact any of the Outreach Folks (Barry and Debbie Orrell, Linda and Woodie Gough, and Jack Blunk).

We would also like to take this time to invite you to join the Outreach Team. We would love to have you! Anytime.

You can place your donations in the designated box in the church foyer.
