

Matt. 24: 37-39 "For the coming of the Son of Man will be just like the days of Noah. For as in those days before the flood they were eating & drinking, marrying & giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and they did not understand until the flood came and took them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be."

Heb. 11: 7 By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household. II Peter 2: 5 Noah, a preacher of righteousness.

Gen. 5: 28 - 29 Lamech lived 182 years, & became the father of a son. Now he called his name Noah, saying, "This one will give us rest from our work and from the toil of our hands arising from the ground which the LORD has cursed." Gen. 5: 32 Noah was five hundred years old, & Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, & Japheth.

Gen. 6: 3 - 16 And the LORD said, "My Spirit will not remain with mankind forever, because they are corrupt. Their days will be 120 years." Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. The LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. The LORD said, "I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them." But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his time; Noah walked with God. Now the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and the earth was filled with violence. God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth. Then God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence because of them; & behold, I am about to destroy them with the earth. Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood; you shall make the ark with rooms, & shall cover it inside and out with pitch. This is how you shall make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its breadth 50 cubits, and its height 30 cubits. You shall make a window for the ark, & finish it to a cubit from the top; & set the door of the ark in the side of it; you shall make it with lower, second, & third decks."

I Peter 3: 20 The patience of God kept waiting in the days of Noah, during the construction of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through the water.

Gen. 6: 17 - 22 "Behold, I, even I am bringing the flood of water upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life, from under heaven; everything that is on the earth shall perish. But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall enter the ark--you and your sons and your wife, and your sons' wives with you. And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. Of the birds after their kind, and of the animals after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive. As for you, take for yourself some of all food which is edible, and gather it to yourself; and it shall be for food for you and for them." Thus Noah did; according to all that God had commanded him, so he did.

Gen. 7: 1 - 12 Then the LORD said to Noah, "Enter the ark, you & all your household, for you alone I have seen to be righteous before Me in this time. You shall take with you of every clean animal by sevens, a male & his female; & of the animals that are not clean two, a male & his female; also of the birds of the sky, by sevens, male & female, to keep offspring alive on the face of all the earth. For after seven more days, I will send rain on the earth forty days & forty nights; & I will blot out from the face of the land every living thing that I have made." Noah did according to all that the LORD had commanded him. Now Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of water came upon the earth. Then Noah & his sons & his wife and his sons' wives with him entered the ark because of the water of the flood. Of clean animals & animals that are not clean & birds and everything that creeps on the ground, there went into the ark to Noah by twos, male and female, as God had commanded Noah. It came about after the seven days, that the water of the flood came upon the earth. In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day all the fountains of the great deep burst open, & the floodgates of the sky were opened. The rain fell upon the earth for forty days & forty nights.

Gen. 7: 13 - 24 On the very same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark, they and every beast after its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, all sorts of birds. So they went into the ark to Noah, by twos of all flesh in which was the breath of life. Those that entered, male and female of all flesh, entered as God had commanded him; and the LORD closed it behind him. Then the flood came upon the earth for forty days, and the water increased and lifted up the ark, so that it rose above the earth. The water prevailed and increased greatly upon the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water. The water prevailed more and more upon the earth, so that all the high mountains everywhere under the heavens were covered. The water prevailed fifteen cubits higher, and the mountains were covered. All flesh that moved on the earth perished, birds and cattle and beasts and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth, and all mankind; of all that was on the dry land, all in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died. Thus He blotted out every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the sky, and they were blotted out from the earth; and only Noah was left, together with those that were with him in the ark. The water prevailed upon the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Gen. 8: 1 - 21 But God remembered Noah and all the beasts & all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, & the water subsided. Also the fountains of the deep & the floodgates of the sky were closed, & the rain from the sky was restrained; & the water receded steadily from the earth, & at the end of one hundred & fifty days the water decreased. In the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat. The water decreased steadily until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible. Then it came about at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made; & he sent out a raven, & it flew here & there until the water was dried up from the earth. Then he sent out a dove from him, to see if the water was abated from the face of the land; but the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him into the ark, for the water was on the surface of all the earth. Then he put out his hand and took her, and brought her into the ark to himself. So he waited yet another seven days; and again he sent out the dove from the ark. The dove came to him toward evening, and behold, in her beak was a freshly picked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the water was abated from the earth. Then he waited yet another seven days, and sent out the dove; but she did not return to him again. Now it came about in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the water was dried up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the surface of the ground was dried up. In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. Then God spoke to Noah, saying, "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you. Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth." So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him. Every beast, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out by their families from the ark. Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, & took of every clean animal and of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar. The LORD smelled the soothing aroma; & the LORD said to Himself, "I will never again curse the ground on account of man, for the intent of man's heart is evil from his youth; & I will never again destroy every living thing, as I have done."

Gen. 9: 1 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth."

Gen. 9: 12 - 15 God said, "This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me & you and every living creature that is with you, for all successive generations; I set My bow in the cloud, & it shall be for a sign of a covenant between Me & the earth. It shall come about, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow will be seen in the cloud, & I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again shall the water become a flood to destroy all flesh."

II Peter 2: 4 - 10 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of darkness, reserved for judgment; and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment.
