

Men Who Cook, With a Purpose

Presented by Nia Fellowship Baptist Church

Rev. Alphonsus Platt, Pastor

Greetings,

Nia Fellowship Baptist Church needs your help in Kingdom Building and invites you to participate in the First Annual “Men Who Cook, With a Purpose.” We’re bringing together the community for a day of good food, fun, fellowship and fundraising on Saturday, November 16.

We just celebrated five years in our new home in West Orange, and it continues to need significant improvements, repairs and maintenance. We’re looking to raise funds for projects that include repairs to the sanctuary from a fire that occurred before we purchased the building, as well as improving the sound system, heating and cooling, door entry, flooring, ceiling repairs and windows.

Please consider showing off your culinary skills by providing a favorite dish and encouraging your family and friends to buy a ticket to the event and join in the fun. (Chefs don’t need a ticket, of course.) Our facility can accommodate up to 50 chefs for the event.

To make things more interesting, we’re planning a friendly competition for the most popular dishes in several categories – as voted on by the diners. We’ll have two levels, one section for individuals and the other involving three-men teams sponsored by participating congregations. The more of your friends and family who attend, the more support they can provide.

Please spread the word. We’re enclosing a flyer for spreading the news as well as a chef application. You can copy both documents, which are also available for download at the event web page, www.NiaFellowshipBC.com/MWC.

It will be a glorious day in the Lord to gather together in fellowship while raising much needed funds. We hope to see you there.
