LIVE WITH A LIVING HOPE

“Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead...” 1 Peter 1:3

April 21 is the day the world celebrates Easter, the anniversary of Jesus’ resurrection. Jesus’ resurrection is the key element of the Christian faith. Without Jesus’ resurrection, his death means nothing and we are still guilty of sin against a holy God. Without forgiveness, we live under God’s condemnation now and forever. Without hope, life is meaningless.

According 1 Peter 1:3, Jesus’ resurrection produced our new birth with a living hope. Our new birth is caused by God as He drew us to Himself, convicted us of sin and redeemed us from Satan’s death grip. God’s new birth connected us to His family and thus a “living hope.”

Our living hope, provided by God himself as a response to our faith, never dies because Jesus never dies. Do we display God’s living hope in life, regardless of life’s circumstances? A resurrected Jesus is displayed in how we live life individually and in church.

Is a resurrected Jesus, the producer of living hope, on display in our lives?
