Call to Prayer

Colossians 4:2-3, "Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains."

Paul writes this letter of correction and protection from house arrest in Rome to a church started through Epaphras. Paul elevates the person and work of Christ in opposition to false teachers elevating legalism. In their relationship to Christ, Paul commands them to live unique lives in the context of an anti-Christ world. One of those commands is found in the above verses.

"Devote yourselves to prayer," is a command expecting continual application. The word translated "prayer" means to "express a wish toward someone." In this context, the wish is expressed toward God.

What do we need to express to God?

- 1) To calm the political unrest in Nicaragua.
- 2) To rise up cabin leaders for Youth and Children's Camp.
- 3) For open hearts of our students during Camp and Vacation Bible Schools.
- 4) For Christ's compassion for our communities.
- 5) People would be drawn to Jesus in Malegaon, India and Managua Nicaragua.
- 6) Pastors being filled with Holy Spirit so that disciples will be produced.
- 7) Churches will be unified around God's task of making disciples so that people will hear the gospel and experience the transformation of Christ.
- 8) Wisdom for revitalizing Churches and planting new churches in Linn-Livingston Association.
