THE SPRINT OF MAY

On your mark, get set, Go! Plant the seed, mow the yard, keep up with calves being born, celebrate Mother's day, attend Baccalaureate, college and high school graduations, enjoy Memorial day, start youth camp, attend revivals, go to church, take vacation and above all else, rest. Whew!

The busyness of life can interrupt our ability to hear and obey God.

God's message to a busy and rebellious people in Psalm 81:10 is, "I, the LORD, am your God, who brought out of Egypt; Open wide your mouth and I will fill it."

Remember God's past activity and submit to His present provision to live in the power of His presence even in the busyness of life.

Mission Trips

Many of you will be involved in mission trips in the coming months. We would love to know where and when you are serving so we can pray for you. Please contact the office with your dates and locations.

Grand Oaks Camps

Pray for our campers, workers and pastors as we enter into this season of ministry. Pray that God would be glorified, Holy Spirit would fill the workers and that Jesus would be exalted.

Personal Ministry

Invest in your neighbors, serve your community, stay focused on God's task of making disciples of all nations-starting where we are.

Dear Linn-Livingston Bapt. Assoc.,

My personal “thanks” for the memorial gift in memory of Sylvia.

It is not easy to lose one that is dear, but we do not grieve as unbelievers do. She is at home with Jesus and in a far better place. Just a heartfelt “Thank You”

May God continue to bless the ministry of the Linn-Livingston Association.

Bro. Bill Wehmeyer
