ALL of the following MUST BE SUBMITTED to be considered for a scholarship:

1. A copy of your college or high school transcript, whichever is appropriate.
2. A typed or clearly hand written letter or statement as why you feel this scholarship is important to you in pursuing your college education.
3. ONE (1) written personal reference. If you are a high school student the personal reference must be from a local person. If you are in college we would like current references from the location you are now located unless you have worked in the Sublette area over the recent college breaks. Your reference should not be a relative or close friend and should be submitted by people from one of the following three (3) categories.

- * Current instructor or advisor
- * Work place person (review requirements above)
- * Community person (minister, business person, etc.)

A reference form is available at www.subletteumc.com/page/scholarship\_and\_reference\_forms should your reference person prefer to use it. It may be submitted directly on-line to the scholarship committee.

I have asked the following individual to submit references for me:
