

Daughters of the King

The Laura June King Alston Order of the Daughters of the King Established February 1, 2009

A Celebration!

The First anniversary of the Daughters at All Saints
Induction of New Members on February 7th, 2010

The Daughters

The Daughters of the King is a sisterhood of women who have made a vow to follow the Rule of Life, incorporating the Rule of Prayer and the Rule of Service. By reaffirmation of the promises made at Confirmation, a Daughter pledges herself to a life-long program of prayer, service and evangelism, dedicated to the spread of Christ's Kingdom and the strengthening of the spiritual life of her parish.

he Motto of the Order

*For His Sake...
I am but one, but I am one.
I cannot do everything, but I can do something.
What I can do, I ought to do.
What I ought to do, by the grace of God I will do.
Lord, what will you have me do?*

About The Cross

The emblem of the Order is in the form of a modified Greek fleury cross that is inscribed as Magnanimita Crucem Sustine. This is the Latin watchword of the Order that means "With heart, mind and spirit uphold and bear the cross." At the base of the cross are the letters "FHS," initials that stand for the Motto of the Order: "For His Sake." During each induction ceremony, every new Daughter receives her cross that is worn all the time.
