Covid-19 Parish Guidelines for Public Worship

1. If you feel sick and/or have a fever—please stay home.
2. You must wear a face mask over your nose and mouth and keep physical distance (members of the same household should sit in the same pew).
3. Please use hand sanitizer.
4. Sit in a pew with paper hearts. Hearts are spaced for physical distancing.
5. Refrain from shaking hands or hugging during The Peace.
6. Place your pledge and gifts in the offering plate when you receive communion.
7. Crosses on the carpet are 6 feet apart to mark safe distancing.
8. Receive communion at the altar step and return to your pew exiting through the Library.
9. Only one person in restrooms at a time.
10. After mass, take your bulletin with you or dispose all paper items from your pew in a wastebasket as you exit.
11. After mass as you leave, please honor physical distancing inside and outside of the building.

*Prepare your hearts and minds for worship while music is being played.
Share with God your needs and thanksgivings.*

Opening Acclamation

Leader Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

Collect of Purity The leader and people pray in unison.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Leader The Lord be with you. People And also with you.

Almighty and gracious Father, we give you thanks for the fruits of the earth in their season and for the labors of those who harvest them. Make us, we pray, faithful stewards of your great bounty, for the provision of our necessities and the relief of all who are in need, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

First Lesson

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy (8:7-18 NRSV)

Moses said to all Israel: For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. You shall eat your fill and bless the LORD your God for the good land that he has given you.

Take care that you do not forget the LORD your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today. When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good. Do not say to yourself, "My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth." But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

The Response

Psalm 65

Te decet hymnus

Let us pray the Psalm together in unison.

You are to be praised, O God, in Zion; *

to you shall vows be performed in Jerusalem.

To you that hear prayer *

shall all flesh come.

Our sins are stronger than we are, *

but you will blot out our transgressions.

Happy are they whom you choose * and draw to your courts to dwell there!

They will be satisfied by the beauty of your house, *

by the holiness of your temple.

Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness, *

O God of our salvation,

O Hope of all the ends of the earth * and of the seas that are far away.

You make fast the mountains by your power; *

they are girded about with might.

You still the roaring of the seas, *

the roaring of their waves, and the clamor of the peoples.

Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvelous signs; *

you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy.

You visit the earth and water it abundantly; *

you make it very plenteous;

the river of God is full of water. *

You prepare the grain, for so you provide for the earth.

You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; *

with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.

You crown the year with your goodness, * and your paths overflow with plenty.

May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, * and the hills be clothed with joy.

May the meadows cover themselves with flocks, and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *

let them shout for joy and sing.

Second Lesson

A reading from the Second Letter to the Corinthians (9:6-15 NRSV)

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, "He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever."

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Leader The holy gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (17:11-19 NRSV)

People Glory to you Lord Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

The Gospel of Lord. People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Donald Frye

The Nicene Creed

Leader: Let us affirm our common faith as we say,

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving (The Book of Common Prayer)

Intercessor: Let us lift our prayers of thanksgiving and respond by saying, You have blessed us with enough, so we may share abundantly in every good work. Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

You have blessed us with everything, so we may share abundantly in every good work.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side. We thank you for our diocese and for all parishes, missions, and Episcopal agencies that seek to build your kingdom and bring repair to the world. We pray for those in need of your compassionate mercy remembering Bonnie, Ron, Jerry, Paige, Jim, Ken, Margaret, Jaymeson, and Sam.

You have blessed us with everything, so we may share abundantly in every good work.

We thank you for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us. We pray for all our first responders and those providing medical care for those suffering from coronavirus and other illnesses, addictions, and anxieties. Give us relief from our stressors and self-care so we may serve those in need like the lepers you healed.

You have blessed us with everything, so we may share abundantly in every good work.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone. We have learned to Zoom and Facetime, conducted our studies and work online, and new ways to be creative in these days. Help us to use these tools to connect and welcome others into our community of faith.

You have blessed us with everything, so we may share abundantly in every good work.

Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Priest: Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know him and make him known; and through him, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to you in all things. Amen.

Martin Stellhorn

The Holy Eucharist

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever proclaim the glory of your Name saying:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." **+++

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." **+++

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Leader: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction

Priest Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

Prayed with those watching online before in-person worshippers receive communion.

Leader Let us pray, Jesus, we believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. We love You above all things, and we desire to receive You into our souls. Since we cannot at this time receive You through bread and wine, come into our hearts. We embrace You because you said wherever two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in the midst of you. Unite us wholly to You, because nothing can separate us from the love of God. Amen.

Communion Music

Come, ye thankful people, come

see page 10

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray, Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Leader: Be generous as God has been generous with his surpassing and indescribable grace to us through our Lord Jesus Christ. And the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Dismissal

Leader: Let us go rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. Alleluia, alleluia.

People: Thanks be to God.

Words: Edward Hayes Plumptre (1821-1891), alt. Music: St. Matthew, from Supplemental to the New Version of Psalms by Dr. Brady and Mr. Tate, 1708

Come, ye thankful people, come

Come, ye thankful people, come, raise the song of harvest home;
All is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin.
God our Maker doth provide for our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come, raise the song of harvest home.

All the world is God's own field, fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown unto joy or sorrow grown.
First the blade and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear;
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day all offenses purge away,
Giving angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast;
But the fruitful ears to store in His garner evermore.

Even so, Lord, quickly come, bring Thy final harvest home;
Gather Thou Thy people in, free from sorrow, free from sin,
There, forever purified, in Thy garner to abide;
Come, with all Thine angels come, raise the glorious harvest home.
