THE ENLIGHTENER

April 2014

If there is no resurrection from the dead,
Then not even Christ has been raised.
And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless
And so is your faith.

(1 Corinthians 15: 13-14)

Paul, in his first letter to the Corinthians, states his case clearly and succinctly: Easter, he says, is the defining event in Christianity. Without Jesus' resurrection, all our words, all our ministry is pointless exercise – and we are lying to ourselves. If this is the case then we are, among all people, the most to be pitied.

But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead...(!)

(1 Corinthians 15: 20)

As Christians, we are an Easter people. We believe in God's love and forgiving grace. We believe that nothing, not even death, can separate us from that love and grace. Why? Because we believe that death is not the end, that Jesus, in his resurrection, conquered death once and for all - for all people. If we do not recognize Jesus as the Risen Christ, then no other part of Christianity means anything.

It is easy for Easter to be neglected in our world, in our society. The Holy Day has become a holiday, complete with an extended shopping season, and cute mascots that have nothing to do with the Christian celebration. The worship part of Easter can become something that gets squeezed in if there is time. When that happens, the events that we celebrate at Easter – the resurrection of Jesus, and his promise that we too will be raised like him – fade into the background.

Whatever else you do to celebrate Easter on April 20th, find the time to worship. If you are with out-of-town family, go to their church, or visit a church if they don't attend one. If they are here, bring them to our worship; we'll make room. We will have services at 7:00 a.m. in the garden, at 8:15, and at 10:45. The Good News of the resurrection will be proclaimed in scripture and in song. If you are away from home and family, you can probably find a church within driving distance. If you can't worship with others, find a way to worship privately, thanking God for the great gift of life, now and forever, through Jesus Christ.

It's what we're all about.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Matt Stengel

Thoughts shared from Deacon Dee:

Lent is a time to take the time to let the power of our faith story take hold of us,
time to let the events get up and walk around in us,
a time to intensify our living unto Christ,
a time to hover over the thoughts of our hearts,
a time to place our feet in the streets of Jerusalem or to walk along the sea and listen to His word,
a time to touch His robe and feel the healing surge through us, a time to ponder and a time to wonder...

Lent is a time to allow a fresh new taste of God!

by Ann Weems

.....5 Finger Prayer

During Lent prayer is a wonderful way to be on the journey to the Cross. Your hand is always with you and prayer can be too.

Look at your hand.

The thumb reminds us to pray for friends and family.

The index finger is a reminder to pray for people who point us to God (pastors, teachers, parents)

The middle finger is the tallest, so it can remind us to pray for the people who are leaders in our church, town, cities, states, countries and the world.

The ring finger is the weakest finger and can remind us to pray for the people who are less fortunate than we are.

Finally, the little finger can be a reminder to pray for ourselves.

Lent is a time not of death but renewed life.

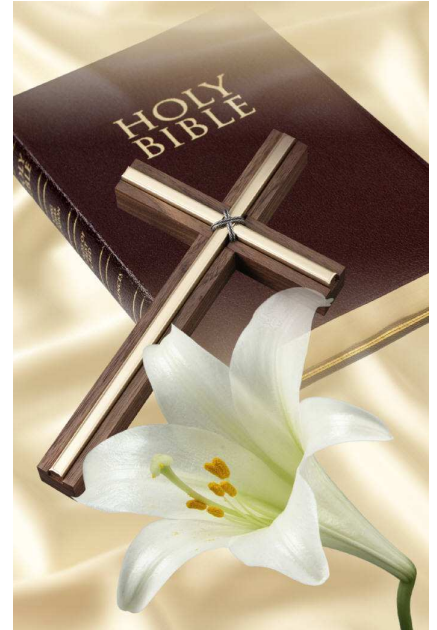

How are you spending these weeks preparing to know that Christ died for you?

Deacon Dee

Message from Outreach:

One cold evening, a little boy, about six years old, was standing in front of a store window. He had no shoes and his clothes looked old and ragged. As a young woman passed by, she could see the longing in the child's eyes. She walked back, took the child by the hand, and led him into the store where she bought him some new shoes and warm clothes.

When they came back outside into the street, the little boy looked up at her and asked, "Are you God, Ma'am?"

She smiled and replied, "No, I'm just one of His children."

"Oh," said the little boy, "I knew you had to be some relation."

Thanks for another basket full of undies!

Your kindness is reflected in your generosity!

April Selection:

Great House
by Nicole Cross

For twenty-five years, a reclusive American novelist has been writing at the desk she inherited from a young Chilean poet who disappeared at the hands of Pinochet's secret police; one day a girl claiming to be the poet's daughter arrives to take it away, sending the writer's life reeling. Across the ocean, in the leafy suburbs of London, a man caring for his dying wife discovers, among her papers, a lock of hair that unravels a terrible secret. In Jerusalem, an antiques dealer slowly reassembles his father's study, plundered by the Nazis in Budapest in 1944.

Connecting these stories is a desk of many drawers that exerts a power over those who possess it or have given it away. As the narrators of Great House make their confessions, the desk takes on more and more meaning, and comes finally to stand for all that has been taken from them, and all that binds them to what has disappeared.

Great House is a story haunted by questions: What do we pass on to our children and how do they absorb our dreams and losses? How do we respond to disappearance, destruction, and change?

Everyone is invited to discuss this biography on Thursday, April 24th at 10:00am in the Kerrison Room.

STEWARDSHIP

"Stewardship is another way of talking about ministry, and it would revolutionize ministry if people could think of it in terms of stewardship—that we are accountable to God for what we do and with what he has trusted to us."

"The word stewardship comes from the Greek word oikenomous, which means somebody who manages a household. A person doesn't own the household but manages it. And stewards in the ancient world, of course, were trusted with everything from seeing that the floors were clean, to the finances, to the public face of that household. Joseph is a good biblical example of that."

"We are not the owners but have been trusted with resources and the care of everything—Creation, gifts and talents, money, time, the gospel—for the sake of God's purposes in the world."

The above is a quote from Stewardship Is More Than Giving Money We are all ministers. JoHannah Reardon | posted 6/14/2011 to the website Christian Bible Studies. I thought I would share it with you as an approach to stewardship as you consider your weekly, monthly and special giving, along with donating your time and talents. There are many books, websites, etc., that have different approaches to stewardship, but, in general, they all agree that we are managing God's gifts for the sake of His purposes. We hope you consider this as you participate in the many aspects of our church.

Sunday School Mission Project

Join us in "Stamp Act" for Curriculum

This year, the Sunday School classes are joining with the Alliance Stamp Ministry in collecting and recycling cancelled stamps. The proceeds go toward publishing Spanish language Sunday school materials and distributing them to churches in Latin America. Even in the age of e-mail, people are still using stamps. Help us by collecting your used envelopes and trimming them so the stamps have at least a 1/3 of paper left around them. If you are not comfortable trimming the stamps, just bring in the used envelopes in and our volunteers will trim them for you.

Thank you in advance for helping us spread the God's word to others in the world.

Any questions, please contact Jean Lee.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

We just held a spaghetti dinner on Ash Wednesday, at Hope Lutheran with several volunteers helping to prepare and serve the dinner. The end result was raising an addition $707 towards our next project.

Our next fundraiser is our annual Sticky Lips BBQ on Thursday, May 22nd – mark your calendar. We'll begin selling tickets a few Sundays before that and will be looking for volunteers (if you're interested in helping - let me know. We usually need order runners, servers, traffic directors, etc.). There will be more publicity and posters as we get closer to that date.

We thank you for your ongoing support and look forward to another home building either later this year or early next year.

Thoughts from Co-Lay Leader Lisa Kostyshak

Here's a Guidepost article I came across when I was looking for something to write about for this month's article. I was hoping to find some inspiration to write about transitioning from Lent to Easter. I think this article says what I was thinking... Enjoy!

Getting My Heart Ready for Easter

By Julia Attaway, March 12, 2014

Last year during Lent I got rid of a bag of stuff a day. It was a terrific and simple discipline: I had to think through what I didn't need, figure out who did need it, pack it up, and get it out of the house.

By the end of a few weeks I'd cleared out a huge amount. More to the point, I was amazed at how much space opened up in my mind and spirit with a bit of physical de-cluttering.

This year I've given up playing games on the computer. Suddenly there is time to do things I thought couldn't be done, and attention to give to others. It turns out that what I'd thought of as downtime was actually pulling me down. Without the seduction of mindless entertainment, I have to use my mind more. I read more, write more and have started a number of home-improvement projects. Hopefully, once I get more accustomed to using my time wisely, I will be praying more, too.

Getting one's heart ready for Easter requires sacrificing a few worldly desires. It's work, but surprisingly refreshing. Will you share the work you're doing to prepare for Easter? It might just help someone else.

Source: <http://www.guideposts.org/blogs/seeds-of-devotion/getting-my-heart-ready-for-easter>

Perhaps you could share with someone what you are doing for Lent to prepare for the arrival of Easter.
