

Message from the Pastor:

I feel as though I am behind the times. Back in March of this year, a group of people who have been involved in various disaster response projects were invited to form a team to work under FEMA's efforts in Saipan, a US territory in the Northern Marianas Islands (the same archipelago as Guam) near the Philippines. Saipan was devastated by Super Typhoon Soudelor in August of 2015. I, and six others from western NY including my wife Cathy, will be in Saipan for three weeks (from October 27 to November 18, 2017) to participate in the ongoing rebuilding of houses and community buildings. Teams are asked to commit to three weeks for this project because of the cost of transporting people to the southwestern Pacific.

I say I feel behind the times, because so many disasters have happened since I agreed to go to Saipan. United Methodist Volunteer in Mission (VIM) teams are forming and deploying to Texas, Louisiana, Georgia, and Florida, and soon (we hope) to the US territories of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Our attention has shifted to these more recent storms, but it takes years to clean up and rebuild following a large hurricane. I worked on rebuilding teams in Biloxi, Mississippi as late as 2010 following the damage of Hurricane Katrina (2005).

Disaster response takes place in three stages: The first is "Rescue," getting people out of harm's way and helping them through the storm. Cathy participated in "rescue" when she went to work in a shelter in Texas following Hurricane Harvey this September. The second stage is "Early Response", in which trees are cleared, basements mucked out, roofs tarped, and wet furnishings, wallboard, and insulation removed from houses. This takes place in the days, weeks, and sometimes months immediately following the storm. The third stage is "Recovery." Recovery is the rebuilding of structures and communities and lives. This can take many years. I was pastor in Corning, NY in 2010, and people still talked about the 1972 flood as though it happened last week.

I feel blessed to be a part of this effort. I understand it as living the Gospel and being God's love to our neighbors, even though we will be there under the auspices of the US government. Please pray for me and Cathy and our team as we are in mission later this month.

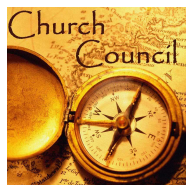

In Christ's love,

Pastor Matt Stengel

SEE YOU THERE!

Sponsored by the Greece United Methodist Women

Hello All!

This coming February 2018, members of the church; Rhyse Nier, Jon Standhart, and Vicki Standhart, will be traveling to Masaya, Nicaragua as part of the Genesee Valley mission trip! The main focus of this trip is to help at Project Chacocente. This is a community of nine families that have been moved from La Chureca, formerly the largest garbage dump in Central America, to a property that has allowed them to find hope in a better life. The trip will be 10 days long and we ask for your support in prayer, words of wisdom and financially as we travel to Nicaragua on God's Mission.

Old Testament Succoth Booth

This month, come and see a Harvest display in the King Commons area. This helps us to remember where we came from in our Old Testament roots.

We will gather our harvests of canned goods to contribute to the Feast of Ingathering from Old Testament Days or as we call it...donating turkey and food items to share in giving to prepare the Thanksgiving baskets for families in our community.

Harvest gatherers dwelt in booths (Succoth) or trellis-roofed cabins as they worked in the fields to rest from the heat and hard work.

This past summer and especially this month has been a time of celebrating the harvest of crops and fruits and the close of another agricultural year.

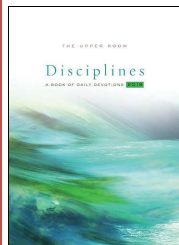

We have much to be thankful for. Join others, all month, by bringing in food for the Thanksgiving food collection. We will assemble and dedicate the food baskets on Sunday, November 19th.

2018 Devotional Book Order

How wonderful is it to spend each and every day focused on our Lord through scripture and devotion. This year we are offering two options to purchase a 2018 devotional book to help you dig deeper into the Bible and your faith. Orders will be taken through November 30th. Please fill out this tear off and submit between Sunday services or in the church office during the week. These books make wonderful Christmas gifts for your family, friends, and neighbors.

Stewardship

From www.umc.org: "To belong to our congregation is to be a steward. Some may say that "stewardship" is just a polite way of referring to financial giving to the church. But it's far more than that. As God's stewards we have three responsibilities:

Receiving: We receive with joyful thanksgiving the many gifts that God showers upon us — time, talent, treasure, our bodies, our friendships, natural resources, and the beauty around us.

Managing: We take good care of what we have received. We manage these resources wisely — for our own good and the good of others.

Giving: Out of our gratitude in receiving so abundantly, we want to share with others."

November is the time of year in our congregation when we ask for your commitment for the upcoming year. Your generous support of our budget through your commitments enables our staff and committees to create and support programs. Watch for mailings in November that will give you the opportunity to make a commitment; we pray that you will give it your prayerful consideration.

November Selection:

Painted Veil

By W. Somerset Maugham

Set in England and Hong Kong in the 1920s, The Painted Veil is the story of the beautiful but love-starved Kitty Fane. When her husband discovers her adulterous affair, he forces her to accompany him to the heart of a cholera epidemic. Stripped of the British society of her youth and the small but effective society she fought so hard to attain in Hong Kong, she is compelled by her awakening conscience to reassess her life and learn how to love.

The Painted Veil is a beautifully written affirmation of the human capacity to grow, to change, and to forgive.

Everyone is welcomed to join us Thursday,
November 30th at 10:00am in the Kerrison
Room for discussion.

Advent Bible Study with Pastor Matt

Starting November 30th

Book TBD

Check weekly announcement sheets and website for upcoming details.

There will be two sessions, as we have in the past. Each week, there will be a session at noon at Greece UMC (Kerrison Room), and a session at 7:00 p.m. at The Villages (in Village Square) behind Unity Hospital on Long Pond Road. (Anyone may attend either session, and you may switch between them.)

We hope to see you there

Message from Outreach:

November offers so many opportunities for giving thanks and for giving to others.

First, between now and November 12, we can fill up plastic shoeboxes with a variety of items as part of the Red Bird Mission based in the Appalachian Mountains of Kentucky, providing ministries to rural residents distressed by chronic poverty, lack of jobs, and poor housing. Outreach will provide the plastic shoeboxes which can be filled with the following items for adults or children and returned to the commons area by Sunday, November 12:

- Items for the adults' shoe boxes (Please mark for a man or woman)

Include: comb/brush, shampoo, hand lotion, deodorant, toothbrush and paste, chap stick, full-size bath soap, wash cloth, mittens, disposable razors, shaving cream, scarves and hats, nail care supplies, socks, and work gloves.

- Items for the children's shoe boxes (Please mark for a boy or girl, and the age category: 2-4, 5-9, and 10-14)

Include two or three toy items, two or three school items, bar soap, children's toothbrush, children's toothpaste, shampoo, lotion, wash cloth, comb/brush, chapstick, mittens, hats, socks, and small flashlights. Christian bookmarks, wrist bands, and other spiritual items are also appreciated.

- Please do not wrap the boxes. Please include $1 for each shoebox in a separate envelope to help with shipping costs.

Second, it's time to drum up some Thanksgiving fixins and frozen turkeys! On Sunday, November 19, we'll line up the Bucket Brigade to bring forward an assortment of canned & boxed foods. Frozen turkeys can be dropped off in boxes stationed in the commons area. We've pledged 10 "baskets" to the Food Shelf, and we will also refer to the Food Shelf any food requests (families of three or more) called in to the church office. Families of two who call in can still have a request filled. We are encouraging everyone requesting food to arrange to pick up the box at church.

As part of Veterans Day Sunday (November 12), both services will welcome guest speaker, Laura Stradley, a representative from the Veterans Outreach Center, speaking briefly about issues confronting homeless veterans. Laura will also be available during our Fellowship Hour to answer questions or offer additional insights into how GUMC can help. We encourage anyone wishing to contribute to our donation box, available that Sunday, to bring in travel-size toothpaste, toothbrushes, mini-first aid kits, hats, scarves—or other small items useful for the homeless vets.

Finally, THANKS for GIVING generously to our school supply collection which we delivered, along with the July Undie Sunday donations, to West Ridge, Holmes Road, Autumn Lane, Longridge, English Village, and Brookside.

Habitat for Humanity

Thanksgiving is just around the corner; a time for families, special meals and a time for thanks for all we have. Each year, our Greece Coalition of Churches hold a pie sale, featuring pies from Kelly's Apple Farm. The proceeds from the sale help in the sponsorship of another home (our 7th is planned for next summer). You can help by ordering a pie or pies for that special day. There will be someone manning a table in the King Commons Area to take your orders on three Sundays preceding Thanksgiving (Oct 22nd, Oct 29th & Nov 5th). You can also order directly by contact Bill Mason at wmason@rochester.rr.com. Ordering early helps us (and Kelly's) plan, so place your order asap. See the form below or watch for them in Sunday bulletins as well as at the order table. Payment with your order is helpful; make checks payable to Greece UMC and note Habitat Pies in the appropriate area on your check. If you're interested in helping receive and distribute the pies on the 21st, please call me.

Thanks for your support! Bill Mason

Creating Stories

"This is what I believe," he said.

"I believe that I am called to live in good relationship with all that is around me. I believe that I am in good relationship with the Creator. I believe that I am in good relationship with those who are my brothers and sisters, all those who are human. I believe that I am in good relationship with all the Two-Leggeds, Four-Leggeds, Those that Fly in the Air, Those that Swim, and Those that Crawl Upon the Earth. I believe that I am asked to be in good relationship with all that is created. This is what I believe."

"I believe" he said, "that if I am in good relationship with all that is around me, every act I do is a sacred act for a sacred purpose. Why would I not wish to live in good relationship with the Creator and all that is around me? This is what I believe."

"I believe" he said, "that when I gather food, it is a prayer. I believe that when I smile at someone I see, it is a prayer. I believe that when I touch a child, or feed my horse, or go to work, it is a prayer. When I make a rattle, or paint a picture, it is a prayer. When I sing, it is a prayer. When I dance, it is a prayer. When I do anything that brings joy to the Creator, it is a prayer. It is a sacred act."

"When you tell a story," I asked, "is it a sacred act; a prayer?"

His eyes lit up. "Oh yes," he said. "When I create a story, it is a sacred act. It is a prayer." He looked in my direction for a moment, and briefly caught my eye.

"When you hear my story," he asked, "is it a prayer?"
