

The ENLIGHTENER

Pastor's Message:

*O give thanks to the Lord, for God is good;
For God's steadfast love endures forever!*
(Psalms 106, 107, 118, 136)

It's not as though I don't have anything to be thankful for. Quite the contrary, I have a great deal to be thankful for. It's not that I think that I am more responsible for the good things in my life than God is. Rather, I believe that all that I have and all that I am able to do with it is a gift of God from the great bounty of God's creation. I believe that every person that I love, every person that matters to me in any way, in fact, every person, is a child of God and shares the world with me through God's grace. It's not that I believe that God is far off or that God created the world and walked away. No, I believe that God continues to create and to be involved in creation in an intimate way. I believe that God is in relationship with every human being, whether they acknowledge it or not, and that that relationship is one of love.

If I believe all these things (and I do!) then why do I ever forget to give thanks? One would think that I would be walking around in a perpetual "attitude of gratitude." And yet sometimes a day will go by without a prayer of thanksgiving, or even a quick expression of "Thank you God!" It may be a day that is so wonderful that I am completely wrapped up in my own feelings of well-being. It may be a day in which I have accomplished so much that I am proud of my skills and intelligence and basking in the glow of high self-esteem. It may be a day that is so difficult, frustrating, or disastrous that there is no room for any good feelings or thoughts (I sure have had a few of those lately!). Whatever kind of day it is, the fact is that my relationship with God suffers when I forget to give thanks.

I can give thanks for the beauty of the earth and the people that surround me. I can give thanks for all the things and skills I have that God has given and helped to develop. I can give thanks that God is "beside me to guide me" through difficulties, frustrations, and disasters. On any given day, I can give thanks to God.

November is the month of the holiday of Thanksgiving. But let's not limit our giving thanks to one single day. Let it be a month of giving thanks to God. Let it be the beginning (or the restart) of a lifetime of giving thanks to God - an attitude of gratitude, each and every day.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Matt Stengel

HOLIDAY PIES FOR HABITAT HOUSES

Thanksgiving is just around the corner; a time for families, special meals and a time for thanks for all we have. Each year, our Greece Coalition of Churches holds a pie sale, featuring pies from Kelly's Apple Farm. The proceeds from the sale help in the sponsorship of another home (our 8th). You can help by ordering a pie or pies for that special day. Place your order by either mailing your order with payment to the Church office or placing it in the Donation box in the Sanctuary on Sundays. Pie orders have to be in no later than Sunday, November the 15th. You can also order directly by calling Bill Mason at 319-5924 or by email to Bill at wmason3403@gmail.com. Ordering early helps us (and Kelly's) plan, so place your order asap. See the form below or watch for them in Sunday bulletins. Pick up of your pies will be on Tuesday, the 24th at the Church lobby; the Church is open mornings and your pies will be marked. The Payment with your order is helpful; make checks payable to Greece UMC and note Habitat Pies in the appropriate area on your check. If you're interested in helping receive and distribute the pies on the 24th, please let me know.

Thanks for your support! Bill Mason

Message from Outreach:

It's November already, the month of giving and giving thanks. We have several opportunities to do both.

First, due to Covid concerns, our Thanksgiving Basket program will be much different this year. Instead of supplying frozen turkeys and all the fixins for a Thanksgiving dinner to a specific number of families, we will be accepting monetary donations to assist the Greece Ecumenical Food Shelf in purchasing Aldi's gift cards for needy families: a family of 3-5 = $40; a family of 6-8 = $50; a family of 9 or more = $60. One idea: we can contribute what we would've spent on the purchase of food. All donations should be turned in by Sunday, November 1. Please make out checks to the Greece Ecumenical Food Shelf, and designate "Thanksgiving Basket" on the memo line. Place the labeled envelope in the collection plate or in the Outreach mailbox. (Sorry for the late notice; we did not realize the deadline would be so early.)

Second, we will also be supporting the Red Bird Mission again, but that has changed, too. Since shoeboxes are in short supply and there is no drop-off site anywhere near us, we decided to help defray the cost of transporting the goods to Kentucky. Outreach has made a $200 donation, and we are giving you the opportunity to contribute if you would like to. The deadline is Sunday, November 15. Checks should be made out to Endwell United Methodist Church. I will collect the checks and mail them to the church.

The Red Bird Missionary Conference is one of three United Methodist missionary conferences in the United States. It is the most comprehensive mission effort of the United Methodist Church, providing outreach and services that minister to the whole person (spiritual, physical, social, and economic).

We look forward to honoring/ recognizing our Veterans this month, and thank them for the sacrifices they made.

Finally, November's Food Shelf requests are canned fruit (pineapple, pears, apricots, mixed fruit), chili, beef stew, black beans and pork & beans.

Although Atria Bible Study is still on hold, Gale Huber & I (Karen Pearson) have started our third month, leading a small Zoom Bible Study at Elderwood Senior Living on Long Pond Road.

Many thanks for all the programs you help support!

Happy Thanksgiving from your Outreach team!

HEART TO HEART and "WE CARE" CARD MINISTRY

During this very difficult time when we are unable to worship and fellowship in a meaningful manner, it has occurred to me in addition to the notes on the table in the Commons area each month that we check the page in the Newsletter where birthdays and anniversaries are printed and send a card or two to members listed, especially to those who have been unable to worship with us in the church building. This could be another way to "keep in touch."

Thank you.

Gale

Page Turners Book Club:

November Selection:

Sold On a Monday

By Kristina McMorris

2 CHILDREN FOR SALE— The scrawled sign, peddling young siblings on a farmhouse porch, captures the desperation sweeping the country in 1931. It's an era of breadlines, bank runs, and impossible choices. For struggling reporter Ellis Reed, the gut-wrenching scene evokes memories of his family's dark past. He snaps a photograph of the children, not meant for publication. But when the image leads to his big break, the consequences are devastating in ways he never imagined.

Haunted by secrets of her own, secretary Lillian Palmer sees more in the picture than a good story and is soon drawn into the fray. Together, the two set out to right a wrongdoing and mend a fractured family, at the risk of everything they value.

Inspired by an actual newspaper photo that stunned readers across the nation, this touching novel explores the tale within the frame and behind the lens—a journey of ambition, love, and the far-reaching effects of our actions.

Join us Tuesday, November 24th at 4PM in Fellowship Hall

December Selection: No Meeting.

Widows & Widowers:
Will not meet until COVID restrictions are lifted. Check website for updates.

Going the Second Mile—UMW Fall Bazaar Initiative

The Fall Bazaar should be right around the corner, but because of Covid-19 we are not able to have it. The Executive Committee of Greece United Methodist Women is asking for your help with our funds, calling it "Going the Second Mile".

My thoughts are if you would have attended the Clothing Sale or the Fall Bazaar, try to calculate the dollar amount you would have spent. If you are able to help us out, put your donation in an envelope, put Sharon Neary's name on the envelope and place in the UMW mailbox in the commons or mail to the church. Make checks payable to Greece United Methodist Women.

The members of Greece United Methodist Church have always graciously supported our fundraisers. The Greece United Methodist Women are grateful and thankful for all of your support.

Linda Hoffman, Greece UMW member.

Salem Nutritional Center

Salem is still operating, doing meals for pickup only, and they are operating with a reduced staff (basically by invitation only).

Please join us each month as we help to stock the shelves at the Greece Ecumenical Food Shelf.

November we are collecting :

- Canned fruit - pears, pineapple, apricots, mixed fruit
- Pork & Beans, chili, beef stew, black beans

Please donate regular sizes—most households are 1-4 people.

UPDATE: COVID-19 and Our Church Finances

Our church finances have continued to look “okay” because you, our members, have continued to make your contributions, tithes and offerings. Thanks be to you and to God!

We have now done four very successful BBQ fund raisers. As of this writing, the Book Sale is looking good and the Pulled Pork Event is about to take place. It is possible that we will come close to our goal for income from fundraisers in spite of the events that did not take place earlier this year.

That said: Your contributions remain vital! You may drop them off at the church, mail them, use our online giving option (see the website greeceumc.org) OR turn them in at our Covid 19 compliant in-person services at 10:00 am Sundays this fall.

Very soon we will be asking for pledges to support our ministries in 2021. Please be alert for that message and prayerfully commit your funds, time and talent to Greece UMC.

I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. --Philippians 4:12

C.S. Lewis added his own twist to this verse in Philippians when he said “We ought to give thanks for all fortune: if it is ‘good,’ because it is good, if ‘bad’ because it works in us patience, humility, and the contempt of this world and the hope of our eternal country.”

For me, the key phrase in Lewis’s quote is “works in us”. Doesn’t that have a soul-wrenching ring to it? It reminds me of when my mom would run water-soaked clothes through the wringer to extract the liquid; they would come out flat as a crepe. After they’d hung in the sunlight to dry, she would press them on her Ironrite (electric ironer). Fat heated rollers pressed the wrinkles into oblivion. The clothes looked and smelled better, but what an excruciating process.

Grateful people are so winsome one can’t help but be drawn to them. I’ve noted that these folks are those who have been wrung out with grief and pressed to the limits with hardships yet have come forth with grateful hearts. Of course, some emerge from suffering bitter, caustic, and volatile. The suffering process doesn’t guarantee a sweet spirit. But if we’re willing to believe that the Lord is at work in us for good in every situation, then we might begin to relate to Madame Guyon who, after many years of imprisonment, penned, “My Lord, how full of sweet content; I pass my years of banishment.”

Lord, work in me gratitude.

Amen.
