

Message from Pastor Matt:

We are coming into the season in which we will ask members of our church to let us know their intentions for giving to the church in the coming year. We call this process “pledging,” and it helps us anticipate the resources we will have for ministry in 2016. Some folks feel like we’re squeezing people to “give ’til it hurts.” My hope is that as we share and grow in ministry together, we are creating disciples who will hurt until they give. Some folks have no means to give financially to the church. You are in our prayers and your time and service is always welcome. Many of us, however, can decide to respond to God’s blessing in our lives, by giving to God’s work here in our church. How do we decide how much to give?

The Hebrew scriptures of the Bible, also known as the Old Testament, especially in the books of Leviticus and Deuteronomy, records the Law of the Tithe (e.g. Deuteronomy 14: 22). “Tithe” is an old word in English that means “one-tenth.” The Law of the Tithe stated that (assuming an agricultural society) one tenth of the harvest of any given year belonged to the Lord, and was given to God through the Temple (“tithing”). The same scriptures also commanded that a portion of the crop, a fringe around any given field, should be left for the poor to harvest for themselves, along with any “gleanings,” or grain that had fallen on the ground (Leviticus 19:9). In our modern society, we think of tithing in terms of money instead of crops. Under Hebrew law, one-tenth, or a tithe of our income would be given to God through the church.

But, as Paul the Apostle says in the Letter to the Romans (6:14): We are no longer under law, but under grace. Therefore, we are no longer bound by the Law of the Tithe. Yet we are still called as Christians to give. What is our guide for giving? Jesus did not give specific instructions, but told his disciples to give sacrificially, and beyond what is required or expected. He, himself, gave himself completely on our behalf. In Jesus’ time, tithing was what was expected. For Jesus’ followers, tithing is a baseline from which to reach higher. But tithing can be a big sacrifice and a huge commitment .

You may be skeptical about whether it is even possible for you to tithe. I (and others who tell me that they tithe) know that it is a great blessing to them rather than a burden. I want to invite you to try tithing on a short-term basis. In the past, I have suggested the period of Lent, in the spring. However, you may want to try a single month, or from now to Thanksgiving. I invite you to try tithing, and see whether you are blessed by the endeavor. [One of the few places where God invites the people to test him is the test of whether tithing will bring a blessing (Malachi 3:10).] If you want to continue the experience, it may well become a life-style for you. You may want to “pledge” to continue. If you find you cannot continue, you may find that you can give more than you expected.

I would love to hear about your experiences with this. I trust God will bless the effort.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen (Ephesians 3:20)

In Christ’s love,

Pastor Matt Stengel

All Church Read 2015

To Kill A Mockingbird by Harper Lee

One of the best-loved stories of all time, To Kill a Mockingbird has been translated into more than forty languages, sold more than forty million copies worldwide, served as the basis for an enormously popular motion picture, and was voted one of the best novels of the twentieth century by librarians across the country. A gripping, heart-wrenching, and wholly remarkable tale of coming-of-age in a South poisoned by virulent prejudice, it views a world of great beauty and savage inequities through the eyes of a young girl, as her father—a crusading local lawyer—risks everything to defend a black man unjustly accused of a terrible crime.

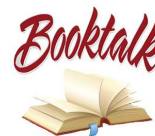

Most of us may have already read this story, maybe far back in high school, but it is a timeless story with issues that still pertain to the present. This is the time to open our minds and hearts and read it again through the lenses of faith, searching for where classic literature meets scripture.

Saturday, October 24th, 7pm will be a our family movie night where we will show To Kill A Mockingbird in the Fellowship Hall. Popcorn and drinks will be served.

Sunday, October 25th will be our pot-luck lunch and discussion event after the 2nd service—around 12:00pm. All are welcomed.

Heart to Heart Ministry Update:

Thank you to all who attended our brief get together following the worship service on August 23rd. The feedback and updates on our home-bound members was interesting and helpful. For those of you unable to attend, basically we agreed that visits would be made when a member deemed it would be beneficial to the one being visited even if full recognition was not possible. Making a connection between the home-bound and our church was the primary goal, and in some cases, sending cards and notes would be appropriate. We will plan to meet again in 2016, probably in February, if possible.

In the meantime, please call or send a brief email to Gale Huber following a visit to keep us up to date. Visits are made at your convenience, always.

We still need approximately 5 more members to become part of this ministry. An updated sheet is now in the Commons area. Also, if you are unable to continue with visits with a particular home-bound member, please contact Gale. Cards and notes, hopefully, are being continually sent to those names appearing in the bulletin each week by all of our church members.

Trustee Update on Land Sale:

The trustees, Matt and the district counsel met Wednesday, 9/9, at church to discuss the sale of the land to the builder. At the end of the meeting, the counsel voted to approve the transaction and will write a letter, signed by them and the DS, formally authorizing the sale. This is a major milestone in the process. Our next step will be to have the lawyer start on the court order needed to go to closing and to speak with the builder and see where he is in his process with the town of Greece. Thanks for all your help.

STEWARDSHIP

Now that we're back in the usual Sunday schedule, it is time to begin work on our annual stewardship drive. A tri-fold brochure is in the works as is a new look at timing of the actual commitment drive. Current financial reports show that we're doing ok, but it doesn't take into fact that we've reduced Dee to half-time and no longer have a Church Secretary. Nor does it tell the whole story on where we stand with Conference apportionments.

I raise those issues not to bring a negative attitude to the stewardship drive, but to emphasize the fact that we need to continue to take a hard look at our giving. Soon, we'll be reviewing the budget for next year and will need to find ways to support the programs therein. Good solid programs are necessary if we are to grow our church and to reach out to our neighbors. So please start to give some consideration to your support of those programs, both financially and with your time and talents.

Bill Mason

Finance Monthly Report:

August numbers show a Usable income of $218,003.25. We spent $201,632.60 and have $6,639.00 yet to pay leaving us with a $9,731.06 to the plus side. Through week 36 we show pledged income up by $11,000 and unpledged down by $4,600. Budget gap is down by $1,500.00. Everything else is ahead, especially Fund raisers. (+$5,200) and many more are scheduled.

I want to point out the "Other" line on your giving envelope. If you are giving to something other than "Current Expenses or Missions it should go on the other line with an explanation of what it is supposed to go to. Such as Budget Gap or Shared or altar flowers. etc. This has to be written out on that line so I can post it properly. Hope you had a great summer.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Work continues on our Greece Churches sponsored home and while there is no set closing date as yet, we expect to get a date from Flower City Habitat soon. In the meantime, our homeowner, Laurie Frazier continues to work toward filling her requirements. Hopefully, we should have final details at our next coalition meeting in early October.

We still need your support through donations and volunteer efforts. Eight churches have now raised over 2/3 of the $65,000 it takes to sponsor a home. As of this writing, we need to raise another $12,000 or so. If you've been inclined to make a donation, now's the time. See the coupon below.

We also need volunteers to work on the final steps in finishing the home, our 6th in the City of Rochester. We also ask you watch for details on our annual Kelly's pie sale for Thanksgiving.

If you have any questions please e-mail at wmason@rochester.rr.com.

By the way, I could use a backup to represent our church to the coalition. If you're interested let me know. Thanks for your ongoing support.

Please tear off the coupon below and return it to the church office or place it in the collection plate:

School supplies boxes, filled to the top with so many items, it made our eyes POP! We sorted and counted and delivered them all--lots of kids will be having a ball! Check out next month's newsletter for the specifics of your generosity!

If every elementary class had 21 students, we'd have enough undies to outfit every child in 10 classrooms! Combining the donations from May and August totaled 215 pairs (33 packages) of colorful undies! As always, we were met with smiles, hugs, and bless-yous! November 29 is the next Undie Sunday.

Finally, it will soon be time to gobble up those Thanksgiving food bargains, so haul out your roasting pans and get ready for our annual Bucket Brigade of turkeys and all the fixin's on Sunday, November 22. Stay tuned for details.

FAITH COMMUNITY BOOK DRIVE

ROCHESTER ELEMENTARY CHILDREN NEED YOUR HELP!

Rochester Education Foundation (REF) and Church Women United of Rochester (CWU) would like to invite the Faith Community to join them in a city-wide book drive for the benefit of elementary school children within the Rochester school district.

Our hope is for each and every congregation to collect NEW books appropriate for elementary-aged children.

Books should be brought to church on Sunday, October 18th

Please share this with your church and if someone within the congregation is interested in being a representative, contact Lynn Ryder, Church Women United's Community Relations Coordinator at 342-2790 or cwulr@yahoo.com. This information will be particularly handy in order for us to coordinate the drop off of books.

How often are the words that Jesus speaks, the words we really want to hear?

Sometimes it's not what we want to hear, but it just so happens to be the words we need to hear. At that moment.

Jesus' teachings are sometimes hard to listen to because they offer a different truth than the desires of our ego. EGO?? The message and work of Jesus is what heals and yet, it hurts my ego. EGO??

Sometimes I walk away like a kid who refuses antiseptic for her badly skinned knee because she knows it's going to sting.

Sometimes I stick my fingers in my ears saying "LA-LA-LA-LA-LA-LA" I CAN'T HEAR YOU!!!

But, eventually, it sinks in.

There is no promise offered here that all of my desires will be met. But I have seen Jesus work in my life. Maybe not all of my desires have been met, but instead, my desires of my heart have changed. And that is the greater promise.

Think about the gifts of the Gospel.

All the things that bring us life but that the ego hates: Grace. Mercy. Forgiveness.

Jesus isn't our personal wish book. Do you remember circling your heart's desire in the Christmas Wish Book? A new bike? New clothes? New electronics? Did you ever think Jesus would bring you those things?

If this Jesus thing was about wish fulfillment and meeting all our needs, then the story of Jesus would never have included a sketchy conception and a working class upbringing and then trouncing around with prostitutes and lepers and healing the sick and casting out demons and being betrayed and beaten and crucified and rising from the dead with a still wounded body.

And there would be no wisdom. And no compassion. No charity. No deep connection to other human beings. No tears. No solidarity. Nothing that really saves us. We need wisdom and compassion and charity and a deep connection to each other and forgiveness and tears and solidarity. We need all the things our egos will never clamor for.

Jesus' life was about touching the unclean and eating with all the wrong people and speaking truth to power and always turning our pride upside down...his life was of joy and fellowship and frustration and wisdom and always sticking with his disciples, no matter how idiotic it seemed.

His life showed us how to live. With Grace. With Mercy. With Forgiveness.

Worship Committee

The Worship Committee is looking for people who want to aid their fellow worshipers each Sunday. See below how you may help enrich our worship time:

Altar Guild: Members serve for a month to care for the chancel; filling the candles, hanging the paraments as required, and preparing for baptisms. This work can be done any time during the week, with the candles being checked between services. If you are interested, contact Phyl Ann Helmes.

Communion Stewards: This is a once a month obligation (and most likely only a few times a year). If interested, contact Mary VandeLogt.

Greeters: We are looking for people who would like to greet people 15 minutes before 9:00 and 11:00 Worship. Anyone can be a greeter, individuals, family groups, youth. If interested, contact Deacon Dee.

Ushers: Interested in serving your congregation in a small but significant way? Why not become part of one of the ushering teams? Groups of four members serve for a month once or twice during the year. Contact Tom Hinterman in person, or Hinterman.Tom7@Gmail.com

Nursery: Sally Lepi, Nursery Coordinator is looking for people to help serve a week in the nursery during worship. Could you sign up? We need to be able to give people with young children the option during both 9 and 11am for childcare.

Projectionists: Lisa Kostyshak, coordinator, is looking for projectionists for both the 9 and 11 am services. Please contact her if interested.
