

The ENLIGHTENER

Pastor Message:

At the end of October is the familiar holiday of Halloween. It was originally a time of prayer and fasting in preparation for All Saints' (or "All Hallows," as in "hallowed be thy name") Day. It began in the year 609 AD, and was celebrated in the middle of May. In 835 AD, All Saints' Day was switched to November 1, and All Hallows Eve (or Halloween) to October 31.

The exact reasons for the date switch are lost to history, although theories abound. Whether or not it was the direct reason for the switch, the date chosen was at the same time as pagan festivals in several European cultures that celebrated harvest, and coming winter, and spirits of the dead returning – some for good, others for harm. These festivals often included "guising", or dressing up in costume disguises in order to fool any returning spirits that might seek to do one harm. Gifts of food, especially sweet treats, would be offered to get on the good side of angry spirits.

As often has happened, the pagan practices were incorporated into the Christian observance of All Saints' Day and Halloween. They were given Christian significance and their pagan history was forgotten. By the late 1800's and certainly into the 20th century, the rituals remained but any religious significance had been forgotten about the treats and costumes of Halloween. Now, Halloween is a huge industry, and has an entire season (nearly from Labor Day to the end of October) devoted to it. I have a beloved relative who would be glad if every day were Halloween. We have even incorporated it into our church's outreach ministry, with a "Trunk or Treat" experience for children in our parking lot (it's a lot of fun – come join us on October 31st!).

One of the criticisms that I hear about the church, and Christian people, is that we do a lot of "guising," or dressing up in costume to be something we are not. We are accused of putting on our "nice people" and "do-gooder" costumes when we go to church, and take them off when we are out in public. I think that is not a fair accusation about many, if not most, Christians. Unfortunately, it is true enough about enough of us that the reputation is growing, rather than shrinking in the minds of the world outside the church.

Let's commit ourselves to disproving the reputation of "hypocrite" for Christians. Let's not be one kind of person when we get together and another when we are apart, as though Christian discipleship were a costume. Instead, in the words of Paul, let's "put on Christ" – a way of living, a way of relating – and be real. Real helpers, real healers, real lovers, real disciples.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Matt Stengel

WE Are the Church

"I am the Church! You are the Church! We are the church together!
All who follow Jesus, all around the world! Yes, we're the church together!"*

Do you ever get that ear worm that lasts for weeks? I've been dealing with that exact issue and it is this favorite hymn "We Are the Church" I first learned in Sunday School. Why? After this summer's survey and conversations with other congregation members, I have taken to books to read on what are the keys to a successful church. After each article, each book, the same theme keeps coming to mind.

"The church is not a building, the church is not a steeple, the church is not a resting place, the church is the people."*

As we are ramping up after the summer break, the church has many programs that need your support. Gone is the 20/80 paradigm (20% of the church doing 80% of the work). We all need to work together to support the programs and events. As you look through this month's issue, ask yourself if this is where I could share my gifts. We have many opportunities for volunteering. We have two wonderful community events coming up—Trunk or Treat and the UMW Fall Bazaar.

Sunday, October 20th, we will be celebrating our gifts and dedicating them to God. Each member of the congregation will be asked to fill out a card indicating where they would like to share their gifts. Some of the areas that will be listed are hospitality, worship, education, music, and fellowship.

Also this month, we are focusing on becoming a welcoming church. Check out the announcement on page 7 and other information throughout the month.

Hospitality starts in the parking lot and it is not only for guests. All who come to GUMC need to feel welcomed. Let's all join together - Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors.

"We're many kinds of people, with many kinds of faces,
All colors and all ages, too from all times and places.
I am the church! You are the church! We are the church together!
All who follow Jesus, all around the world! Yes, we're the church together!"*

May God continue to bless our church and all who come seeking the Lord.

Message from Outreach:

Fall is in the air, but we are definitely not fall-ing short of generosity!

Our two bursting-at-the-seams school supplies collection boxes ensure that six local elementary schools will be well-supported again this year. Everything from backpacks to binders, crayons to composition books, pencils to Post-its, erasers to Elmer's, tissues to paper towels: we have things covered! All these treasures, along with our July collection of undies, were received with smiles and thanks.

December 29 is our next Undie Sunday, gathering new undies for elementary school children as well as adults at the Open Door Mission and the Veterans Outreach Center. In addition, at the requests of a few of the nurses, would you please consider purchasing some packages of (the largest possible) diapers (for disabled & spec. ed. students). Kids' pants are also appreciated.

During August, the Veterans Outreach Committee met to discuss ways we could honor our vets. On Sunday, November 10, you can look forward to a moving tribute, including flag presentation, readings, and patriotic music.

November 10 will also be the deadline for contributions for the Red Bird Shoebox Collection Project. Look for the list of items to be included in each shoebox (adult, boy/girl) both in the bulletin and on the table in the commons area. Outreach will provide the shoeboxes and have them available in the commons. In addition to the requested shoebox items, we can also contribute NEW linens: pillows, bedspreads, sheets, blankets (full or twin), new bath towels or cleaning supplies. Finally, money donations are welcomed to cover various costs for the volunteers; checks are payable to Endwell United Methodist Church.

This year, November 24 will be Thanksgiving Bucket Brigade Sunday. We've pledged to provide eight "baskets" to the Food Shelf. Last year, because we received so many turkeys (they wouldn't all fit in the freezer!), we will only be requesting ten turkeys; there will be a sign-up sheet in the commons for those wishing to donate. Meanwhile, let's load up our baskets with plenty of canned & boxed goods. Watch for a list in the bulletin starting the beginning of November.

December will see the Mitten Tree collecting scarves, hats, gloves, and mittens. In addition, Pastor Dee has requested hoodies & socks for Seneca Street Church.

We are still looking for volunteers who would like to become part of the Atria Bible Study Team (joining Neva Benson, Gale Huber, Sue Sepkowski, and Karen Pearson) at 10:30 each Thursday. Finally, keep an eye on the bulletin as well as on the sign by the food collection box in the commons to see what the Food of the Month requests are.

2nd Annual Trunk or Treat! Thursday, 10/31, 6-8PM

We are still looking for people to participate! The bigger, the better!!

What is it? It's a version of Trick or Treating but instead of kids going door to door, they come to the church parking lot and go trunk to trunk. We need your help! We are looking for people willing to decorate their trunks and hand out candy to the kids. There are some great ideas out there on how to decorate your car. We are asking the congregation to help us with candy to hand out. Starting October 1st, we will have a box out in Kings Common to receive donations of Halloween candy. Like last year, we are also handing out cider and donut holes. He had such a great time last year.

What a wonderful, fun way to invite our community into our parking lot for a couple hours of fall fun!!

Sign up sheets will be in King Commons or contact Debbie Babbage at dbabbage@rochester.rr.com,
subject: Trunk or Treat

Being a Welcoming Church

One question that keeps coming up is why are our guests not coming back? Or how come our members are not worshipping with us?

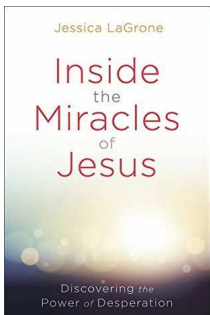

Are we as welcoming as we think we are? That is the first question Thomas Rainer asks in his book Becoming a Welcoming Church. The focus this month for all committees and our congregation will be how can we be a more welcoming church. Each committee leader will be given Becoming a Welcoming Church to share with their committee members. We will also have copies available for the congregation. We will be looking at areas such as the facility, signage, and our worship time, including the welcoming center, nursery, Children's church, and greeters. The hope and prayer is that we will work together to make Greece UMC a welcoming church, filled with Christian love and kindness.

Look for more information throughout the month.

UMW ANNUAL BAZAAR, 9:00-2:00 PM

We will have our usual well loved booths like variety, books, baked goods, and of course the ever popular Attic Treasures!! Our scrumptious lunch cuisine is always something to look forward to also!

We are making a few changes this year and we are excited about them!

We are calling our first new addition "The Marketplace". Do you have an item you would like to donate but it is too large? No problem...just take a picture of it on your phone...email it to yourself then print it. That's it. Starting October 29th, there will be a board in FH near Attic Treasures. Simply affix the photo to the easel with your phone number. When someone purchases it, the monies will go to the Attic Treasures booth.

The second addition is a Silent Auction. It will feature gift certificates/cards from local retailers along with services donated by our members. Some of those services might include babysitting, tax preparation, tutoring, homemade sewing items, craft items, handyman projects, light grocery shopping, rides to the airport, companion for a senior citizen etc. You do not need to be present to win! If you have a service that you could provide that would be awesome also!!

The third addition is Free Appraisals. We will have someone on site from 11:00-1:00. She will do appraisals on anything a customer brings in; however, her specialty is Antique Furniture and Primitive Kitchen/Home Items.

Please put the date on your calendar, bring you appetite and start looking for those "Attic Treasures" that might be buried in your house ready to be donated!!

Thoughts from Lisa Kostyshak

Biscuits

Sharing this with a smile:

“A visiting priest was attending a men’s breakfast in Ohio farm country. He asked one of the impressive older farmers in attendance to say “grace” that morning. After all were seated, the old farmer began--

‘Lord, I hate buttermilk.’ The priest opened one eye and wondered to himself where this prayer was going.

Then the farmer loudly proclaimed, “Lord, I hate lard.”

Now the priest was overly worried. However, without missing a beat the old farmer prayed on, “And Lord, you know I don’t care much for raw white flour.”

Just as the priest was ready to stand and stop everything, the farmer continued.

“But Lord, when you mix ‘em all together and bake ‘em up, you get biscuits. I DO love fresh biscuits. So Lord, when things come up we don’t like, when life gets hard, when we just don’t understand what you are sayin’ to us, we just need to relax and wait ‘till you are done mixin’, and probably it will be somethin’ even better than biscuits.”

AMEN to that.
