CALL TO WORSHIP AND PRAYER OF THE DAY

HYMN 796 "We Come to You for Healing, Lord" LAND OF REST

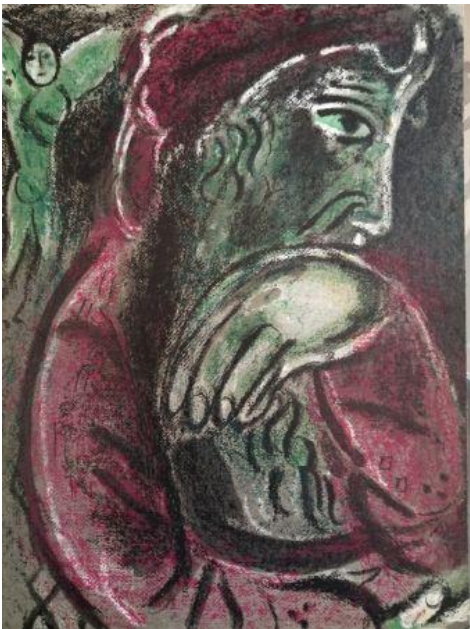

CALL TO CONFESSION & CORPORATE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of all life, we confess that we desire your will to be pleasure and prosperity. We have great difficulty accepting suffering as anything but evil, and we reject it as if it were beyond your power to redeem. Forgive our doubts and our unwillingness to serve you and others to the point of pain. In this we are unlike your Son, our Savior, who suffered with us and for us. Amen.

LESSON

Psalm 22:1-15 & Job 23:1-9,
16-17 OT pg. 515

Job: Then Job answered: “Again today my complaint is bitter; his heavy hand increases my groaning. If only I knew where I might find him, that I might come to his place!
Left: Where are you God, where are you?? Nothing compares with the pain of your absence.
Right: God, I cry out for you all day, and there is no answer — nothing; but at night there is no silence or rest from my inner turmoil.

Job: I would set out my case in front of him, and fill my mouth with arguments. I would learn what his defense would be, and understand his reply to me.
Left: Yet you are holy, the praises of your people in every generation are your throne;
Right: Those who trusted in you, and whom you delivered; those who cried out to you and were not disappointed.
Job: Would he use his great power to debate with me? No; but he would hear what I have to say. There a sincere person could argue it with him, and I should be successful in my case
Left: But in my present circumstance I am not worth calling human, rather, I’m the scorn of all humanity, despised by everyone. It makes no difference who sees me, without exception they curl their lip and shake their head:
Right: “He trusted in the LORD, let the LORD look out for him, let the LORD rescue him if he delights in him.” It’s as though they know you’re nowhere near.
Left: Yes, you brought me out of the womb, and made me safe on my mother’s breasts.
I was cast on you at birth; all my life you have been my God.
Job: If I go east, God is not there; and west – I cannot make God out; to the north God hides, and I cannot see the Holy One; I turn to the south, but I cannot look at God.
Right: Don’t be so far away right now; there is trouble almost upon me, and no one to help. I am surrounded by fearful intimidating strength, circling about me, around and around.
Left: I haven’t the strength to withstand their taunts or your absence; my body is feeble, and the very core of my being has melted like wax.
Job: God has made my heart weak; the Almighty has filled me with terror; Indeed, I am silenced by the darkness, and thick darkness covers my face!
Right: I’ve become paralysed and speechless – and you have set me in the dust of death.
