CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God, our Deliverer, we confess that we are too reluctant to speak and to live according to your truth. We grow comfortable with the way things are, passively condoning injustice. We see ourselves as "insiders," excluding those we consider "outsiders." We find it easier to pluck up and pull down, to destroy and overthrow, than to build and to plant. Forgive us, O God, for being timid disciples. Empty us of fear and shame, and fill us with love that is humble and patient and kind. We pray this in the name of the One who humbled himself, Jesus Christ. Amen.

(MOMENT FOR SILENT REFLECTION)

All: And also with you.

(As those who have been reconciled to God, please exchange signs of peace and reconciliation with your neighbors using the words, "the peace of Christ be with you." And the response, "and also with you.")

ANTHEM (10:30) "His Grace Will Lead Us Through" MARY McDONALD

*Though the trials come, though the road seems long,
It is in the valley His arms are strong.
When we lean on Jesus in all that we do,
His grace will lead us through.*

*His grace is sufficient; He's merciful and true.
'Til all have heard, we will stand on His Word!*

His grace will lead us through, God's grace will lead us through.

*Come with grateful hearts to the throne of grace
And see our Savior face to face!
Our help through the ages our hope to come;
His grace will lead us through.*

*Oh, grace, grace; Gods' grace
Grace that will pardon and cleanse within.
Oh grace, grace, infinite grace;
Grace that is greater than all our sin.*

*Affirmation of Faith using The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

During the month of February, Pastor Tony is inviting you to read Tommy Orange's novel, "There There" about urban Indians in Oakland, California, about whom we are told in the prologue, "We know the sound of the freeway better than we do rivers, the howl of distant trains better than wolf howls, we know the smell of gas and freshly wet concrete and burned rubber better than we do the smell of cedar or sage or even fry bread." The novel deals out the stories of 12 characters, many of them related, as their lives move toward the Big Oakland Powwow. New York Times book critic, Dwight Garner, says "'There There' has so much jangling energy and brings so much news from a distinct corner of American life that it's a revelation." We will meet to discuss that assertion and our reaction to the novel on Friday, March 1 at 11 AM. If you have friends that enjoy good books and engaging conversation, please invite them. All are welcome. Happy reading!
