

THIS MEANS WAR!

*Son of the morning--highest of all
You had so much going till you took the fall
But you went down fighting when you heard the bell
Took a third of all heaven when you went to hell*

*This means war--and the battle's still raging
War--and though both sides are waging
The Victor is sure and the victory secure
But till judgement we all must endure
This Means War!*

I have thoroughly enjoyed Pastor Matt's 20/20 Vision Series on the Book of Revelation. I was reminded of this great song from the Christian Band PETRA as we were walking through chapters 12-20 on what is to come and what will happen as God's final judgement is poured out on earth. The battle is still raging we must not give up in the fight to win people for Christ.

There is still a spiritual battle at work in our world today. We as believers are on the front lines of that battlefield. We are the evidence of Jesus sovereignty over the prince of this world (Satan). We are subjects of His Holy Kingdom and we are to witness to the world that a Savior has come and He is Christ the Lord. That battle is not yet over and that victory is not yet complete for evil remains and our enemy Satan is not yet vanquished. God's Word tells us to continue to hope in Jesus for a day is coming when the trumpet will sound and the heavens will open to reveal our King (1st Thess 4:16-18).

God our Father in heaven wants the world to embrace Jesus (His Son) as their King. We who follow Jesus know for certain that He is the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. However this earth is not yet under His Reign. Our world still worships other gods and idols and gives them a place above that of Jesus. It was for this reason that our Heavenly Father put a plan in motion that was thought of before the creation of the world. You see Heaven itself had become a victim to sin when the most beautiful and powerful Angel decided to rebel against God and to seek God's Throne for himself. Then he was reminded that JESUS WINS AND SO DO WE!

*Then came the cross--you thought you had won
You thought you had conquered God's only Son
Now it's all over down to the wire
Counting the days to your own lake of fire
But you'll go down fighting for all that you're worth
To try to abolish His image on earth – This Means War!*

Fight the Good Fight,

Bro. Andrew
