PRAY...

... for these churches without pastors:

First Baptist Eastport Annapolis

Lakeshore Baptist Church
Pasadena

One day the telephone rang in the church that President Franklin Roosevelt attended. An eager voice inquired, "Do you expect the President to be in church Sunday?"

"That," answered the pastor, "I cannot promise. But we expect God to be there and we fancy that should be incentive enough for a reasonably large attendance."

ANNIE (continued from page 1)

Church planting is an effective strategy in North America to advance God's kingdom. Evangelical church planting creates the opportunity for people to hear and respond in faith to Christ and nurtures new believers through discipleship.

Church planting is never an end in itself — each church planted has a goal of multiplication, so the gospel can be spread and God's kingdom advanced.

Who Was Annie Armstrong?

Annie Walker Armstrong (1850-1938), was a passionate advocate for missionaries and their work. She championed missions involvement and gave personally and sacrificially of her time and talents to see the gospel go forward throughout the world. As founder of Woman's Missionary Union, Annie helped create a rich legacy of people awakened and responding to the call of the gospel and the missions mandate to take it throughout the world. That legacy continues in the lives of modern-day missions supporters who pray fervently, give generously, and go intentionally to share the good news of Jesus Christ.
