

All are welcome

*Sir William Johnson, founder of Johnstown, built a “little stone church” for the Anglicans but all inhabitants of the settlement were invited to use this property for worship, including the Native Americans.
Two hundred and fifty years later, St. John’s continues to invite and welcome all.*

St. John's Episcopal Church
250 Years of Faith Serving the Community