About Communion

May I receive communion?

If you are a baptized Christian you are invited to receive communion, no matter what your affiliation.

May my children receive communion?

Yes, if they receive communion at their own church. Some parents prefer their children receive first communion instruction prior to taking communion.

If I choose to receive communion, how is it done?

The ushers will direct you to the center aisle. The consecrated Bread is received with both hands and carried to the mouth. The consecrated Wine is received lightly grasping the base of the chalice with one hand helping the minister to guide it to your lips and tipping it up until you receive enough.

What if I don't wish to drink from the common cup?

You may dip the Bread in the Wine yourself, or leave the Bread in the palm of your hand. The minister with the Cup will pick up the Bread, dip it into the Wine and place it on your tongue.

Must I receive consecrated Wine?

No, if you wish to receive only the Bread, simply pass by the station with the chalice, or cross your arms over your chest to let the chalice bearer know.

What if I choose not to receive communion?

Then we invite you to receive a blessing at the altar. Kneel at the altar with those receiving communion, and cross your arms over your chest. The priest will give you a simple blessing. You can then stand up and return to your seat.

Sunday, August 12 • Guest Speaker

St. John's is pleased to welcome to our pulpit this morning Robert E. Armidon, who will be preaching at our 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. services. He is a member of the Cathedral of All Saints in Albany and this summer is serving as an intern at Oaks of Righteousness in Troy, where he is gaining valuable experience in all aspects of ministry, including evangelism, fundraising, administration, conducting Bible studies, preaching, and working in the inner city and with young people.

He is an American Civil War buff and enjoys hiking, travelling, and reading. He is engaged to the Rev. Hannah Mudge, a priest in this Diocese; they will be married at the Cathedral in Albany on June 1, 2019.
