Campus Bible Fellowship International

January 2014

Dear Friends,

As you might imagine, we miss the daily interaction of the campus, yet, in recent days we have been blessed by serving in other ways.

Stephany continues her discipleship Bible studies via the Internet and shows obvious spiritual growth- almost on a weekly basis. We are grateful for the privilege to serve our sister in Christ through teaching and mentoring. Pray for Stephany as she works her way through the history of the church in Acts.

Stephany is very vocal about the need for a constant Bible-based presence on each university campus and is not afraid to speak of Jesus on the campus where she works. We know she would be encouraged by your prayers as she demonstrates her faith among coworkers, students, and her family.

While not speaking in supporting churches, we attend a small country church that has a passion for a local campus. The day before classes began this month the church offered a whole day of spiritual training and encouragement for the college students who attend the Bible study they conduct at University of Georgia. Mike was asked to teach the session on prayer. You can visit our blog to see photos and read how the church encouraged and prayed over these students before they embarked on another semester of university training. Expressing the great blessings we have received as we travel and share in our supporting churches would take several pages. Our hearts have been encouraged to hear you ask about specific students or to see the sparkle in your eyes when you tell us you are thrilled that God is sending us to Utah. We wish we could bring the college students to see your children in Sunday School class praying for them, or meet the dear saint bent over a cane who tells us you pray for us daily. Though we know we have some very special prayer warriors along side of us, it strengthens us to see you face to face. Thank you so much! It has been our privilege to bring the report, share photos of those you have prayed for, and listen to you share your prayer needs with us. (We love praying for you as well!)

In the coming months we desire to add several more ministry partners who are able to serve with us through prayer and financial support so that we may begin the ministry in Utah. Thank you for lifting this need before the Father. He is able!

Because of Calvary,

Mike and Sharon Keller
